2020 Annual General Meeting

Chairman's Address

Ladies and Gentlemen

I will now provide you with a high level overview of how we performed in FY20, as well as comment on other important matters such as our strategic direction, senior management and Board changes, and remuneration outcomes for the year.

I will then invite Jeff to talk in more detail about the company's operating performance and outlook, as well as progress on key growth initiatives.

Turning firstly to our performance. I am pleased to report that the company delivered admirable results and clearly demonstrated its purpose of championing successful independents.

The FY20 financial year will stand as one of the most challenging years we have experienced, with devastating bushfires severely affecting many of our retailers and local communities, particularly in rural and regional areas where our retailers are strongly represented.

This was then followed by the COVID-19 pandemic which drove unprecedented spikes in demand, particularly in the Food pillar, resulting in extreme pressure on our supply chain.

During the bushfires, our teams went to extraordinary efforts to ensure our retailers were safe and able to continue supporting their communities with supplies of essential items such as masks, generators, cleaning materials, food and water. We worked closely with government, the Rural Fire Service and other essential services to ensure continuity of supply, including arranging air drop deliveries into some communities that became isolated by the bushfires.

Our people also contributed to the clean-up and rebuild through the establishment of 'Tool Libraries' in affected communities. This initiative enabled impacted residents to have access to trade quality tools at no cost.

In total, Metcash and our independent retailers were responsible for donating more than $1.3m to support those impacted by the devastating bushfires.

Not long after the bushfire crisis had subsided, the spread of COVID-19 became a focus around the world. We recognised the critical role that we and our retailers would need to play in supporting communities through this crisis, particularly in regional and remote areas where our retailers are often the only store in town.

We quickly reset our priorities to protecting the health and wellbeing of our people; doing whatever was necessary to make sure we kept our supply chains running and distribution centres operating; and ensuring we remained in a strong financial position so that we could continue to supply and support our retailers.

While there were many outstanding efforts across all our Pillars during this period, I would like to make special mention of the speed in which we flexed our Food distribution centre operations to meet the surge in demand that commenced in March.

Within a period of only two weeks, we were operating at the equivalent level of having added another mega distribution centre. This was achieved through hiring and training new staff, as well as overtime by our existing teams. To achieve this in such a short period of time, while also delivering an improvement in Group safety performance in the year, was really an extraordinary effort.

While COVID-19 trading restrictions had a positive impact on sales in our Food and Hardware pillars through March and April, our Liquor pillar was adversely affected by the shutdown of businesses, both in Australia and New Zealand, which represented approximately 20% of its total sales.

Overall, I am very proud of the way Metcash and our retailers rallied together during these periods of crisis and really delivered on our purpose of Championing Successful Independents. This enabled our retailers to do what they do so well, supporting their local communities.

In April, we completed a ~$300m equity raising and secured an additional $180m of short-term debt facilities in response to the high level of uncertainty associated with COVID-19. This provided us with additional financial flexibility to support impacted retailers during the COVID-19 restrictions, while also enabling us to continue to invest in growth opportunities across our three pillars.

In June, we announced the completion of two bolt-on acquisitions in Liquor and that we were well progressed on the acquisition of a large Hardware independent retailer. In Liquor, we acquired the Liquor Centre, which significantly expands our retail store network in New Zealand; and we also acquired the Kollaras private label brand portfolio which will enable us to accelerate our growth in the private label category.

Last month we announced we had entered into an agreement to acquire a majority stake in Total Tools Holdings, the franchisor to the largest professional tool retail network in Australia with 81 stores nationwide and annual sales of over half a billion dollars. Total Tools is a great fit for us, and it will strengthen both our existing Independent Hardware Group and the Total Tools retail network. We are very excited about this opportunity.

Turning now to our financial performance.

Extraordinary demand in the Food pillar in March and April drove strong sales in FY20. Importantly, the underlying sales trajectory of Supermarkets wholesale sales (ex-tobacco) continued to strengthen during the year, with sales growth delivered for the first time since FY12, even excluding the spike in sales in the last two months of the year due to COVID-19 restrictions.

The success of our strategic initiatives to further improve the competitiveness of our retailer network, together with a shift to more local neighbourhood shopping during COVID-19 restrictions, resulted in market share gains for the IGA network.

Our Liquor pillar continued to perform well delivering its seventh consecutive year of sales growth despite our New Zealand operations and 'on-premise' customers in Australia being shut down in the last five weeks of FY20 due to COVID-19 restrictions.

In Hardware, the business returned to sales growth in the second half of the financial year with March and April sales benefiting from COVID-19 restrictions. Over the full financial year, total sales were slightly below the prior year as an increase in demand in DIY categories was not sufficient to offset the impact of a slowdown in construction activity on Trade sales.

Group underlying EBIT, pre the impact of the new accounting standard AASB16, was $324.2m and Group underlying profit after tax, also pre the impact of AASB16, was broadly in line with the prior year at $209.7m. On a statutory basis, the Company reported a Group underlying loss after tax of $56.8m which includes an impairment to goodwill and other assets made at the half year related to the 7-Eleven contract. Jeff will talk more on this in his presentation.

The Board declared a final dividend of 6.5 cents per share, which provides a total of 12.5 cents per share for the year, fully franked.

I would now like to tell you about some changes to our senior management team and the Board.

In January we announced that Mark Laidlaw would be retiring as CEO of our Hardware pillar and that Annette Welsh had been appointed to succeed him. Mark believed it was an appropriate time for him to step down with the Hardware business strong, diversified and well positioned as the second-largest player in the market.

Mark was instrumental in the growth of this business and we sincerely thank him for his efforts.

Mark will not be entirely lost to Metcash as he has kindly agreed to be the Executive Chair of Total Tools Holdings once this acquisition is complete.

We are fortunate to have a strong management team and it was satisfying to be able to appoint a quality internal candidate to succeed Mark. Annette is well placed through her extensive experience and deep understanding of our Hardware business to continue its growth momentum.

Another change to our senior management team is the impending retirement of Brad Soller from his Group CFO role. Brad advised the Board in March of his intentions, and kindly agreed to stay on through our process of appointing and inducting his successor.

Brad's stewardship since joining Metcash in 2015 has been a key driver of the Company having a strong financial position. His extensive experience and financial acumen have been highly valued by the Board and we wish him all the best for the future.

Earlier this month, we were pleased to announce the appointment of Alistair Bell to succeed Brad as Group CFO. Alistair is a highly experienced executive having held various CFO, COO and strategy positions with public, private equity and multinational companies spanning various industries.

Alistair will be an asset to Metcash, and we look forward to him joining us next month.

Now to the Board. In February we shared the profoundly sad news that Wai Tang had passed away after a short illness. Wai was appointed a Non-Executive Director in August last year and had been a valued contributor to the Board since joining.

Our search for an appropriate replacement is progressing well and we will make an announcement on this in due course.

I am pleased to advise that Peter Birtles has been appointed Chair of the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee (ARCC). Peter's appointment forms part of a planned transition from Tonianne Dwyer which concluded following completion of our FY20 accounts process.

Peter is well credentialed for the role having extensive experience as both a CEO and CFO in publicly listed companies.

I would like to sincerely thank Tonianne for her significant efforts and oversight as Chair of the ARCC since her appointment in June 2018.

Turning now to remuneration.

Last year I advised that a number of changes to our remuneration structure aimed at creating an even stronger link between executive and shareholder outcomes would commence in FY20. These included the deferral of a component of any STI earned to be delivered as equity, and the expansion of our minimum shareholding policy to include Key Management Personnel (KMP). These changes result in our KMP having the majority of on target, at risk remuneration delivered in equity.

In arriving at overall remuneration outcomes for FY20, the Board and management were cognisant of the wider economic challenges facing the community and many of our customers, agreeing that it would be inappropriate for executives to benefit unduly from COVID-19, including the trading outcomes in the last two months of the financial year.

Reflecting this, the Board has deferred any increases to KMP fixed remuneration until the trading environment becomes more settled; has based STI awards and LTI vesting broadly on pre COVID-19 outcomes to avoid any undue benefit; and increased the deferral component of STI awards for greater shareholder alignment in these uncertain times.

The Board believes this approach is fair to both executives and shareholders.

We will have the opportunity to discuss the Remuneration Report later in the meeting.

I am pleased to report that our achievements in gender pay parity have again been recognised with receipt of our second 'Employer of Choice' citation from the Workplace Gender Equality Agency. We have continued to narrow the gender pay gap, which at the end of FY20 was less than 1%.

Looking forward, FY21 has started strongly. We continue to see the shift to more local neighbourhood shopping across all pillars and we are now focused on ensuring the new and returning customers gained through the COVID-19 period are retained in our independent network.

Jeff will provide more information on FY21 trading in his presentation.

From a strategic perspective, our MFuture program continues to be well supported by the quality, dedication and passion of our leadership team, the Board and our retailers and will be a key driver of further improving the competitiveness of our retailer network.

Despite the uncertainty ahead associated with COVID-19, we have a strong financial position that enables us to continue supporting the ongoing success of our independent retailers and invest in growth opportunities.

I would like to thank my Board colleagues, all our people, the leadership team, our independent retailers and suppliers for their ongoing support.

Finally, on behalf of your Board, I would like to thank you our shareholders for your support.

I will now hand over to Jeff.

Thank you

1. 12 months ended 31 December 2019.

Food

- Sales continue to benefit from the change in consumer behaviour seen since the introduction of COVID-19 restrictions
- Total Food sales in the first quarter of FY21 were up 11.4% on the prior comparative period, and Supermarkets wholesale sales (ex-tobacco) were up 13.8%
- Excluding the impact of the loss of Drakes in South Australia, total Food sales in the first quarter of FY21 increased 14.9% and Supermarkets wholesale sales (ex-tobacco) increased 18.4%

 - DIY sales are restricted to Click & Collect and Click & Deliver
 - No restrictions on retailer Trade sales, but some restrictions at building sites
 - 36 IHG stores located in Metropolitan Victoria impacted (predominantly Trade based stores)
- Requirement to reduce warehouse staff by one third in Victoria has led to additional costs

Operating costs and COVID-19

- Our Pillars and independent retailers continue to be subject to significant volatility and uncertainty in their trading environment and operations due to potential changes in COVID-19 restrictions
- Operating costs across all Pillars remain elevated as the business continues to respond to the strong demand from customers, the increased volatility and incremental costs associated with managing the health and safety of both our employees and customers
