Damstra CEO, Christian Damstra, said: "We have started FY21 strongly and successfully completed the Vault transaction. We see this as a year of continued evolution with our business having increasing size, scale and product innovation to accelerate international growth. From an investor perspective, this is important as we believe we have significantly reduced our overall risk profile while increasing our organisational capability. We now have a presence in South East Asia and will continue to add significant resources in North America. Below is a graphic to illustrate that Damstra now has a truly global footprint."

Vault Integration Update

The transaction was completed on the 19 October 2020. Significant activities have already commenced, and a clear implementation plan and pathway forward has been developed.

Organisation

- A new single organisational design has been implemented, with all Vault staff transitioned into Damstra. A new global Damstra executive structure has also been implemented.
- David Moylan (ex-CEO of Vault) has assumed the role of Chief Global Partnerships and will report directly to the Damstra CEO, Christian Damstra.
- David Rose (ex-COO of Vault) is now Chief Service Delivery Officer and will report directly to the Damstra CEO, Christian Damstra.

Synergies

- Synergy and cost rationalisation activities have commenced and already $2.5m of synergies have been implemented. The targeted $4m synergies is reaffirmed.
- As part of delivering the synergies, 30 duplicate systems and suppliers are being rationalised.

Technology

- The Solo product will be fully integrated into the Damstra core system by end of Q2 FY21.
- The Enterprise solution will be fully integrated into the Damstra core system by end of FY21.

Product

- The Vault Brand will be retired, but the Solo Brand will remain.
- Cross sell teams have been implemented, and it has been pleasing that Damstra modules have already been sold to three Vault clients before deal completion.

Appointment of Sara La Mela as non-executive Director to the Damstra Board

We have recently been joined by seasoned technology and sales executive Sara La Mela who has brought tremendous energy, new thinking and insights.

Sara has extensive international experience as a senior technology executive in both Australia and the United States, serving in various roles at both Twitter and Google. At Twitter she was a founding member of its global sales team. Sara has served as the Chief Operating Officer of Local Measure for the last six years, a business that provides a next-generation customer experience platform to help identify, understand and engage customers around the world to drive loyalty.

Senior Staff Appointments

We are actively building the capability of our people at all levels of the organisation. In the previous quarter we announced the expansion of our North American team and have since made more senior appointments based in Australia as detailed below. Both Kimberley and Kathryn will report to the CEO, Christian Damstra.

Kimberley Marshall, Chief People Officer

Appointed Kimberley Marshall as Chief People Officer for Damstra. Kimberley is an outstanding Human Resources practitioner and has significant experience in helping technology companies that are on an accelerated growth path. In her career she has worked for companies such as Buzz Products, Optus, and was Human Resources Director at SEEK.com.au for five years.

Kathryn Vosper, Chief of Sales and Business Development ANZ

Kathryn Vosper has been appointed Chief of Sales and Business Development ANZ, who will be responsible for customer satisfaction and ongoing revenue growth. In her most recent roles, she was APAC Sales and Marketing Manager at Maptek, a global provider of software, hardware and services, and General Manager of Sales at IFS Australia. Kathryn is a strategic technology leader with more than 17 years' experience across a range of sectors including Telco, Mining, Oil and Gas, Construction and Aerospace and Defence.

Business Commentary

Q1 has been a strong start to the financial year, some key highlights as follows:

- Total user numbers increased to 418k, with client churn being negligible and strong net client retention.
- 47 new clients in Australia and North America, across a variety product module. Clients numbers now stand at 326.
- In our core construction vertical user numbers increased to ~68,000 from ~62,000 at end of FY20. This has been driven by new project rollouts, mobilisation of workforce for large infrastructure projects, and return to work on workers with COVID restrictions lifting.
- NBN users plateaued during the Quarter, but a positive outlook given the recent Federal Government announcement of fibre to home deployment.
- Velpic user number were up by 12% for the Quarter from 17,000 to 19,000 users, showing continued uptake of online learning solutions.

- Since launch we have secured a range of client orders for the next generation of fever detection facial recognition solution. The solution will be deployed in various industries across Australia and North America. At this stage, the solution is slated to be deployed at 40 different locations.
- The value of the confirmed fever detection commitments at the end of Q1 was ~$750,000 of annual recurring revenue. This revenue will be fully run rated by end Q2. These contract wins, and ongoing client enquiries, is a positive development for continued growth for this module.
- In North America we continue to expand our Channel Partners strategy, with Venture Source and Mission now active focussing on Federal, State and Local Government.
- The Paperless module has won new standalone clients. Critically, during the Quarter, three Damstra clients have been sold the module, which validates our cross-sell strategy.
- Vault clients have signed contracts for Damstra modules. One client has taken the paperless module and other two clients our Learning module. These clients were secured before the transaction completed. This supports one of the strategic objectives of the Vault acquisition, being multiple cross sell opportunities.

*Unless otherwise specified, all amounts are provided in AUD and an unaudited basis and pro forma basis.
