Quarterly cash flow report to 30 September 2020

All figures are stated in Australian dollars and are unaudited.

Adherium Limited (ASX: ADR), a leader in digital inhaled device adherence, remote monitoring, and data management solutions, presents its Appendix 4C cash flow report for the quarter ended 30 September 2020.

Adherium has secured funding support from Viburnum Funds ("Viburnum"), a Perth based investment firm with A$750 million in funds under management. Viburnum has provided a $3 million secured convertible note and will continue to work with Adherium to explore potential future funding arrangements including new partners to complete Adherium's planned sensor and software development and initial commercialisation.

Through the quarter to 30 September 2020 Adherium continued to progress its revised strategy with its two new US commercial channel partners. In the disease management setting with HGE Health, the first COPD patients were recruited into the pilot program to validate patient support services, enrolment protocols and software upgrades implemented for data reporting relating to the use of Hailie® sensors on patient rescue medication. Screening for additional patients continues. These data from early patients are giving valuable insights in factors necessary to scale the business.

In our specialist sales channel, Adherium and Monaghan Medical have completed an extensive program of training and education in preparation for first patient recruitment next quarter. These activities were supported by customer interviews to understand the key requirements for success including the development of customer/patient education tools and support services. Given the current COVID situation we have invested in the redesign of training and support materials to ensure they can be delivered virtually with the same impact as if given face to face.

The current program of software and hardware development, that will re-establish Adherium's device sensor leadership across the relief and maintenance treatment of Asthma and COPD and incorporates the measurement of airflow enabling providers to access remote patient monitoring reimbursement in the US, continues to make good progress. Initial designs have been through handling and usability testing. A series of feedback sessions with leading respiratory physicians at The Alfred, Melbourne, The Woolcock Institute, Sydney, MRINZ in Wellington, Middlemore Hospital in Auckland, and Temple University Hospital Philadelphia are ensuring the R&D program provides product designs and data that support positive patient and physician engagement and good clinical decision making. The program is on track to deliver first sensors with a physiological measure in H1 calendar year 2021.

Cash Flow Commentary

Receipts from customers for sensor sales, engineering services and clinical trial services were $470,000 for the September quarter compared to $139,000 for the June quarter. The increase was primarily due to receipts from two clinical trial customers.

Payments for research and development were $879,000 in the September quarter compared with $582,000 in the previous quarter. This reflected increased activity and commencement of further strategic sensor and software development work with Planet Innovation in Melbourne in line with the research and development plan. This development will enhance Adherium's leading device coverage position in both Asthma and COPD with sensors and software developed to capture and integrate physiological data and enable physician monitoring and reimbursement activity in the US.

Sales and marketing costs decreased to $173,000 for the September quarter compared with $300,000 for the June quarter. The June quarter included costs associated with establishing the collaborations with Monaghan Medical and HGE Health. Staff costs increased in the September quarter to $904,000 compared to $776,000 in the June quarter largely attributable to a new key appointment (Mr. Geoff Feakes to the CTO role) and catch up payments in transitioning some employees from contractor status.

Administration and corporate costs of $458,000 in the quarter to 30 September 2020 were comparable to $506,000 in the quarter to 30 June 2020, reflecting the Company's focus on careful expense management. Included in the September quarter's administrative and corporate costs were payments of $40,000 to directors for directors' fees.

This ASX announcement was approved and authorised for release by the Board of Adherium.

About Adherium (ASX: ADR)

Adherium is a provider of digital health solutions and a global leader in connected respiratory medical devices, with more than 170,000 sold globally. The Company develops, manufactures and supplies a broad range of connected medical devices for respiratory medications for patients, pharmaceutical companies, healthcare providers and contract research organisations. Adherium's Hailie® solution is designed to help patients achieve better adherence and provide visibility to parents and caregivers. It does this by tracking medication use and reminding the user with helpful nudges when it is time to take doses, and by providing access to usage history to better understand patterns in their asthma and COPD.

Adherium has a series of new asthma and COPD sensors in development which, with their existing capabilities, will also enable the capture of physiological measures enabling access to CPT reimbursement for remote patient monitoring in the US. The first of these sensors are targeted for launch in the US in H1 calendar 2021.

These tools ultimately enable patients, with their physicians, to more effectively manage their Asthma and COPD and at the same time as potentially deliver significant healthcare cost savings to payors and providers.
