VPCL Limited (ASX: VPC) ("VPCL" or "the Company") is pleased to provide an update of the Company's activities for the quarter ended 30 September 2020.

Lumi Financial Holdings Ltd

After the Board reviewed its position in Lumi and the market outlook for unlisted illiquid investments of this type, VPCL agreed to sell its investment in this company. VPCL fully recovered the initial capital invested. Proceeds of this sale, $500,000, were received in July 2020.

Pro 9 Global Ltd Loan

During the quarter VPCL received a further interest repayment of $9,091 in respect to the short-term loan provided to Pro 9. In August 2020, the Company reached a deed of settlement with Pro 9 and during September 2020, VPCL received $200,000 in cash and 2.5 million shares in Pro 9 Global Ltd in full settlement of the loan extended to Pro 9.

Other

The Board has conducted due diligence on numerous acquisition opportunities across various sectors. VPCL is in the final stages of its ASX submission and expects to make an announcement shortly subject to the satisfaction of the final ASX requirements. VPCL will then expect to hold a shareholder meeting as soon as possible followed by a re-compliance of Chapters 1 and 2 of the Listing Rules.

During the quarter, the Company also completed the voluntary winding up of two subsidiary entities relating to the former LMS and Brand Technology Agency businesses, in order to simplify operations under a single trading entity. Formal notification was received from ASIC in July and August 2020, respectively.

In accordance with Listing Rule 4.7C.3, VPCL had no substantive business activities during the quarter other than those described above. There were payments made to Related Parties amounting to $33,600, which were in respect to services to executive and non-executive Directors and the payment was consistent with prior quarters.

This announcement has been authorised for release to the ASX by the VPCL Board.

Notes

1. This quarterly cash flow report and the accompanying activity report provide a basis for informing the market about the entity's activities for the past quarter, how they have been financed and the effect this has had on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information over and above the minimum required under the Listing Rules is encouraged to do so.
2. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standard applies to this report.
3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
4. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the board". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a committee of your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the [name of board committee – eg Audit and Risk Committee]". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a disclosure committee, you can insert here: "By the Disclosure Committee".
5. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors and you wish to hold yourself out as complying with recommendation 4.2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the board should have received a declaration from its CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that this report complies with the appropriate accounting standards and gives a true and fair view of the cash flows of the entity, and that their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
