Incoming Chairman, Todd Hannigan, commented: “TAO is in an exciting phase of exploring the Titan HMS Project, which has the potential to be a very large, high grade titanium and zircon rich mineral sand deposit located in Tennessee USA. These titanium minerals are classified by the United States Government as ‘critical minerals that are essential to the economic and national security of the US, with a supply chain vulnerable to disruption’, and are a vital supplier to the world leading US space and defense industries. The large domestic US titanium industry is nearly entirely import dependent.

“The discovery of rare earth rich monazite in the initial drilling program has added another valuable dimension to the Titan deposit and potentially adds a wide range of the highest priority US designated ‘critical minerals’ to a valuable product portfolio.

“I look forward to joining a strong leadership team and building the leading US critical minerals Company.”

Executive Director, Anastasios (Taso) Arima, said: “Todd joining the Board is fantastic addition to the Company, with his leadership skills, industry knowledge, extensive connections and development track record a great asset as we seek to rapidly move towards development. Todd’s investment in the Company is a huge show of faith and will enable us to significantly advance the Titan Project throughout 2021.”

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board.

About Tao Commodities

Tao Commodities Limited (“TAO”) holds a 100% interest in the Titan Project (“the Project”), covering ~3,000 acres of titanium and zircon prospective heavy mineral sands (“HMS”) properties in Tennessee, U.S. The Project is located in an area which saw significant historic exploration from 1960 – 1990 by DuPont, BHP and others, and included over 200 drill holes and a bulk sample mining operation.

The Project is strategically located in the southeast of the U.S., close to significant manufacturing capacity, providing a significant logistical advantage over current U.S. supplies of imported titanium feedstock. Specifically, the Project is ~15 km from Chemours’ New Johnsonville pigment plant, one of the largest pigment plants globally and within a low-cost barge, truck or rail-served distance to all other major U.S. titanium pigment and metal plants.

The U.S. is the second-largest global importer of titanium feedstocks where it is primarily used to produce TiO₂ pigment for the coatings and plastics sector and Ti metal for the defense, aerospace, space and medical sector. Over the last decade the U.S. has seen a significant decrease in production of both titanium feedstocks and zircon with the closure of Iluka’s operations in Virginia in 2016. As a result, import reliance has risen to 95% in 2019, with import values of ~A$1,200 million.

The Company also holds a 100% interest in the Milford Project in Utah, United States, which is considered prospective for base and precious metals.
