Total Income (US$000's)

NTM as a percentage of UMS rose to 1.4% in 2020 compared to 0.2% in 2019. The 120bps YoY rise in NTM as a percentage of UMS is due to an approximate 50bps improvement in cost of income (mostly credited to lower processing costs), about a 30bps decline in net transaction losses, and an increase in Sezzle Income as a percentage of UMS (30bps). These enhancements in the margin are attributed to the Company's improving consumer profile, which experienced favorable trends in repeat usage, frequency of purchases, and overall payment performance.

Capital Position

"Our successful equity capital raise of US$58.0 million of net proceeds in 3Q20 and our recent US$250 million receivables funding facility refinancing completed in February 2021, greatly strengthened the Company's balance sheet. We are in a very strong position to achieve our growth plans," noted Sezzle CFO Karen Hartje.

As of 31 December 2020, the Company had total cash of US$89.1 million consisting of cash and cash equivalents (US$84.3M) and restricted cash (US$4.8M), an increase of US$52.5 million from 31 December 2019 (US$36.6M). The increase in cash balances was driven by the Company's equity capital raise (US$58.0M) and additional borrowings on the line of credit (US$18.6M), which were offset by negative operating cash flow of US$24.3 million. As of 31 December 2020, US$40.0 million was drawn on the Company's US$100.0 million facility.

Select Balance Sheet Data (US$000's)	31 Dec 2020

Sezzle's CDIs are issued in reliance on the exemption from registration contained in Regulation S of the US Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) for offers of securities which are made outside the US. Accordingly, the CDIs, have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act or the laws of any state or other jurisdiction in the US. As a result of relying on the Regulation S exemption, the CDIs are 'restricted securities' under Rule 144 of the Securities Act. This means that you are unable to sell the CDIs into the US or to a US person who is not a QIB for the foreseeable future except in very limited circumstances until after the end of the restricted period, unless the re-sale of the CDIs is registered under the Securities Act or an exemption is available. To enforce the above transfer restrictions, all CDIs issued bear a FOR Financial Product designation on the ASX. This designation restricts any CDIs from being sold on ASX to US persons excluding QIBs. However, you are still able to freely transfer your CDIs on ASX to any person other than a US person who is not a QIB. In addition, hedging transactions with regard to the CDIs may only be conducted in accordance with the Securities Act.
