12 GST

12.1 Definitions

Words used in this clause 12 that have a defined meaning in the GST Law, have the same meaning as in the GST Law unless the context indicates otherwise.

12.2 GST

- (a) Unless expressly included, the consideration for any supply under, or in connection with, this agreement does not include GST.
- (b) To the extent that any supply made under, or in connection with, this agreement is a taxable supply (other than any supply made under another agreement that contains a specific provision dealing with GST), the recipient must pay, in addition to the consideration provided under this agreement for that supply (unless it expressly includes GST) an amount (additional amount) equal to the amount of that consideration (or its GST exclusive market value) multiplied by the rate at which GST is imposed in respect of the supply. The recipient must pay the additional amount at the same time as the consideration to which it is referable.
- (c) Whenever an adjustment event occurs in relation to any taxable supply to which clauses 12.2(a) and 12.2(b) applies:
 - (1) the supplier must determine the amount of the GST component of the consideration payable; and
 - (2) if the GST component of that consideration differs from the amount previously paid, the amount of the difference must be paid by, refunded to or credited to the recipient, as applicable.

12.3 Tax invoices

The supplier must issue a Tax Invoice to the recipient of a supply to which clause 12.2 applies no later than 7 days following payment of the GST inclusive consideration for that supply under that clause.

- (a) The parties agree and acknowledge:
 - (1) if the Hawke's Point Reimbursable Costs are deducted from the Subscription Price in accordance with clause 5.3(b)(2)(A), that deduction is a reduction in the Subscription Price. The deduction is not a set-off of an amount of consideration otherwise payable to the Subscriber for a supply made to the Company; and

- (2) if the Company makes a payment to the Subscriber in accordance with clause 10.6, that payment is intended as compensation and is not consideration for a supply made by the Subscriber to the Company.
- (b) Notwithstanding the agreement of the parties in paragraph (a) above, if the Australian Taxation Office (or a court or tribunal) determines any of the amounts referred to in that paragraph are consideration for a taxable supply made by the Subscriber to the Company, the Company must pay the Subscriber an additional amount in accordance with clause 12.2(b) within 7 days receipt of a tax invoice.
- (c) The Subscriber agrees and acknowledges that all services supplied to it by entities in Australia should be GST-free supplies under Item 2 in section 38-190(1) of the GST Act. Accordingly, the Hawkes Point Reimbursable Costs should not include any amount for GST.
