8.6 If Item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, please provide answers to the following questions:

- Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?

Answer: Yes, the entity continues with the validation and verification process of its Felix device.

- Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: Yes.

Non-Executive Director, Mr Andrew Goodall has provided a letter of financial support of up to $500,000 for working capital purposes should the Company require it. As at the date of this report no formal agreement has been entered into to finalise the terms of this offered facility.

On 7 April 2021 the entity received approval for a loan secured against the expected ATO refund of the research and development expenditure incurred in the FY21 reporting period in the amount of $730,000 in the event it needed short term funding whilst it arranged longer term funding.

This loan is available to the Company if required however may not be used depending on the outcome of the wider funding discussions currently underway.

The Company together with its longstanding corporate advisor Canaccord Genuity, which has successfully raised funds for Memphasys in the past three years, are in advanced stages of finalising an appropriate funding package for the Company to provide longer term funding certainty.

3. Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: Yes. The business expects to be able to continue its operations to meet its business objectives on the basis it has the necessary licences, agreements and technical personal in place to ensure the Company continues to advance the commercialisation of the Felix Device (and other technologies).

As outlined in 8.6.2. The Company has the support of its longstanding corporate advisor and major shareholders and expects to be in a position to finalise a longer-term funding package. It expects to announce the terms of the package shortly.
