Intended Retirement of Chairman

Chairman of IPH Limited, Richard Grellman, AM has today advised the board that he intends to retire as Chairman and from the board at the conclusion of the Company's Annual General Meeting to be held in November this year.

Mr Grellman has led the company through its successful transition to ASX-listing in 2014 and since that time to become an ASX 200 company with a market capitalisation of approximately $1.5 billion.

"Having served as Chairman for nearly seven years, I believe now is an appropriate time to retire from the board and I look forward to watching IPH's continued growth in intellectual property secondary markets," Mr Grellman said.

The board is now undertaking a formal process to select and appoint a new chair.
