

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT 21 JULY 2021 RESIGNATION OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

DigitalX Limited (ASX: DCC, 'DigitalX' or 'the Company') advised that after nearly five years as an Executive Director of the Company, including three and a half years as CEO, Mr Leigh Travers has tendered his resignation. In line with his executive services agreement, Mr Travers will serve out a two-month notice period, making his expected departure date around early-to mid-September. Over this notice period, he will assist the Board with the smooth transition process.

DigitalX Chair, Mr Toby Hicks said, "Having commenced at DigitalX in mid-2014, and acting as the Company's senior executive for a number of years, the Board acknowledges Leigh's extensive contribution to the Company and respects his desire to take on a fresh challenge.

He leaves DigitalX at a time where it is very well capitalised, has had continued growth in its funds business, with record inflows last financial year; and is leading the charge in the development of new age compliance products for publicly trading companies with our Drawbridge suite. I sincerely thank Leigh for his contribution to DigitalX and look forward to building on our strong foundations for future growth."

The Board has commenced a global executive search process to find a replacement for Mr Travers and will update the market accordingly.
