April, May, and June 2021 revenues exceeded the same period in 2020, 2019 and 2018. This quarter's results are a clear indication that Managements strategy of integrating new clients on a consistent basis is working; this quarter's increase is a direct result of new, recently announced integrations that are now beginning to generate incremental, recurring revenue. Additionally, the first half of 2021 yielded stronger results than any first half year since EN1's listing on the ASX. Management is pleased to update shareholders that the Company's revenues have now been restored to pre-Covid-19 levels.

The Company's Q2 2021 yielded stronger performance than all prior quarters except for Q4 2019. The last quarter of each calendar year is historically the advertising industry's largest quarter of every year with
