Quarterly Activity Report – quarter ending 30 June 2021

Q2 highlights:

- Enrollment for the Phase I HER2 Breast Cancer Study commences
- Collaboration with Patrys Limited in relation to new cancer imaging agents
- Received $2.6 million in R&D tax incentives

MELBOURNE – Imagion Biosystems (ASX:IBX), a company dedicated to improving healthcare through the early detection of cancer, today released its Appendix 4C Quarterly Cashflow report and update on company activities for the quarter ending 30 June 2021 (Q2 FY21).

Executive Chairman and CEO Bob Proulx said, "As signaled to the ASX in May 2021, we were pleased to report the first patient enrolled into the Phase I Study. This is a big milestone for Imagion and gratifying for everyone who has invested so much into getting us to this point."

Site training has been scheduled at the third site, the Royal Brisbane Women's Hospital, and the screening of patients can begin following training. Principle investigator at the Royal Brisbane Women's Hospital, Dr. Kowski Murugappan commented, "As a Breast Cancer researcher and surgeon, we strive to deliver precision oncology care for our patients diagnosed with Breast Cancer, and this project is a direct reflection of this value which is why my team and I are excited to be part of this study and we look forward to our first patient being recruited into this study next month." At a recent investigator wide meeting, investigators and site staff affirmed their strong support for the study, the importance of its clinical objectives, and their confidence in their ability to recruit patients.

Investigators have noted that the number of patients screened is below their estimates based on historical case loads and are reporting that they are seeing lower numbers of patients in general and fewer cases of HER2 breast cancer than before the pandemic. If patient accessibility continues to be slow, completing enrolment by the end of the year will be difficult. However, the Company is working towards increasing access to patients with discussions well advanced with a fourth site, in NSW, which has a large patient catchment.

Additionally, as announced previously during the quarter, initiatives to boost awareness of the study have been implemented and are expected to positively impact enrolment at the sites.

Summary of activities in Q2

The Company announced the significant milestone of the enrolment of the first patient in its Phase I study of the MagSense® HER2 Test Reagent. This study is the first human investigative study of the Company's proprietary molecular imaging technology.

The Company also announced a collaboration with Patrys Limited (ASX:PAB). The collaborative research project will investigate use of a Patrys antibody with Imagion MagSense® nanoparticles with the aim of improving brain tumor imaging and diagnostics. In Q12021, the company also announced a preclinical research project between Imagion and researchers at Monash University's Biomedicine Discovery Institute with the aim of achieving an early proof of concept validation of a MagSense® prostate cancer imaging agent. Both the Patrys Limited collaboration and the Prostate project have commenced, and signal the exploration of the utility of the MagSense molecular imaging strategy in areas of substantive unmet medical need.

The Company received a $2.6 million R&D tax incentive in relation to 2020 R&D activities. This was higher than the $2.2 million received in the prior year and reflected increased R&D spend leading up to the commencement of the Phase I HER2 Breast Cancer Study in December 2020.

Summary of Q2 Cash Flows

Imagion's cash balance increased slightly during the quarter by $0.9 million to $13.9 million. During the quarter $2.6 million was received in non-dilutive R&D tax incentives and $0.3 million upon the exercise of options.

The Company reported an adjusted operating cash outflow of $1.9 million in the quarter (excluding the $2.6 million R&D tax incentive), an increase against the prior quarter's operating cash outflow of $1.4 million. Both research and development expenses and staff costs were up quarter on quarter consistent with the average outflows for 2020 reflecting that Q12021 was a quieter than recent averages.

As Imagion's Phase I clinical study progresses and the Company advances its development pipeline, the Company is planning for research and development expenditures and staff costs to increase in the coming quarters.

As required within the Appendix 4C, the proceeds from the $2.6 million R&D tax incentive are reported within operating cash flows. Excluding the R&D tax incentive the Company estimates that it would have seven quarters of funding available based on the adjusted operating cash outflow of $1.9 million noted above. It is realistic to assume that the estimation is less than seven quarters of funding available given the additional commentary above noting that the Company is planning for costs to increase in the coming quarters. The exact quantum and timing of these increases is still to be determined so no additional estimation has been provided.

During the quarter, $107k was paid to related parties and their associates. These payments related to director fees and executive director salaries.
