For the year ended 30 June 2021, the Company delivered a profit before tax (PBT) of $7.7 million compared to $2.2 million for the previous year. This improved financial performance and increased profitability continues to be a result of the company's enhanced focus on its core products and services combined with better execution and a more profitable revenue mix. For the year ended 30 June 2020, the company incurred $2.6 million related to non-recurring litigation costs and the impact of the adoption of AASB 16 Leases and reported Normalized PBT of $4.8 million. During the FY2021, Adacel also recorded net COVID-19 related government grants of $1.7 million.

The Company delivered revenues of $40.2 million compared to $39.7 million the previous year. Along with the increased revenues, Adacel recorded a notably higher gross margin of $16.1 million as compared to $14.0 million in FY2020. The gross margin includes the allocations of overhead and other fixed costs. The improvement in gross margin is attributable to lower operating costs and a more profitable revenue mix. In FY2021, Adacel increased EBITDA by 118% to $9.8 million compared to $4.5 million for the year ended 30 June 2020. In FY2020, the company incurred $2.6 million related to non-recurring litigation costs and the impact of the adoption of AASB 16 Leases and reported Normalized EBITDA of $7.1 million.

As of 30 June 2021, the Company's net cash balance was $11.6 million, compared to $5.2 million recorded at FY2020 year-end. During the FY2021, a total of $3.2 million (FY2020: $0.8 million) was paid as dividends to shareholders.

BUSINESS SEGMENT REPORTING

Systems

The Systems segment represents sales of integrated software systems and products covering operational air traffic management as well as simulation and training applications. This segment also includes hardware and software upgrade sales.

Services

The Services segment includes all recurring revenue, including software maintenance and all aspects of system support, field services, and on-site technical services.

Segment Performance

The Company's business segment performance is summarised as follows:

Segment performance	Year ended 30 June
	2021			2020
	Revenue	GM	GM%	Revenue	GM	GM %
Systems	12,266	1,508	12.3%	9,743	(1,169)	(12.0%)
Services	27,896	14,602	52.3%	29,971	15,149	50.5%
Total	40,162	16,110	40.1%	39,714	13,980	35.2%

FY2021 % REVENUE PER SEGMENT

During FY2021, revenues in our Systems segment increased from $9.7 million to $12.3 million. The increase is a result of a higher number of systems implemented, including the delivery of additional Air Traffic Control Common Simulators (ACS) units to the US Army via General Dynamics, which was completed during FY2021. The Company received new orders for ATM systems from its French DSNA/DTI customer for a complete technical refresh of the Cayenne ATM system infrastructure that Adacel completed in FY2021. Adacel delivered new MaxSim functionalities for USAF as well as the Technical Refresh for RAAF. In addition, the Company completed two phases of its implementation of Performance Based Operations (PBO) for NavPortugal.

Also, Adacel has achieved a significant improvement in its Systems' Gross margin. The Systems Gross margin in FY2021 was 1.5 million (12.3%), while in FY2020 the Company recorded a loss of $1.2 million in its Systems business. The improvement is due to a more profitable revenue mix.

The Company's revenues from services were impacted by the decline of the US dollar. Adacel recorded a 6.9% reduction in the Services revenue, from $30.0 million in FY2020 to $27.9 million in FY2021. In US dollars, Services revenues were actually higher by 3.7%. In FY2021, Services revenues made up 69.5% of total revenues.

Although we experienced lower revenues in the Services segment because of negative currency headwind, Adacel delivered an improved gross margin of 52.3% in FY2021 compared to 50.5% during FY2020. The improvement is due to revenue mix, increased productivity, and lower overall costs.

The Company's Gross margin in FY2021 improved by $2.1 million or 15.2%, a positive change driven mainly by our systems' successful installations throughout FY2021.

REVENUE BY GEOGRAPHICAL PRESENCE

The revenues from international customers slightly decreased in FY2021, which recorded 24.8% of the total business as compared to 26% for the prior year. The revenues from the North American customers accounted for 75.2% of Adacel's total revenues, a marginal increase from 74% in FY2020. Over the last several years, Adacel recorded a slight percentage increase year-over-year of revenues generated from North America, due primarily to the recurring revenues tied to multi-year contracts. In FY2021, revenues from civil customers made up 64.8% of total revenues compared to 77% for the preceding year while revenues from military sources accounted for 35.2% compared to 23% last year.

OPERATING PERFORMANCE

Systems

In FY2021 Adacel recorded a strong revenue improvement in our Systems segment. The revenues rose from $9.7 million in FY2020 to $12.3 million in FY2021, representing a 26.0% increase. ATC Systems accounted for 18.2% of the Company's revenue, up from 13% of total revenue in FY2020. The increase is a result of the General Dynamics' order for additional Air Traffic Control Common Simulators (ACS) units to the US Army.

ATM Systems revenues accounted for 12.1% of total revenue in FY2021 compared to 10.8% in the prior fiscal year, amounting to $4.9 million in revenues versus $4.3 million in FY2020, a 13.9% increase year-over-year. The expansion of the DSNA's project in Guadeloupe, the completion of the DSNA/DTI technical refresh in Cayenne have contributed to the revenue growth in the ATM Systems segment.

Most notably, after two years of losses, we recorded positive gross margins in the ATM Systems. The ATM Systems gross margins improved from a loss of $1.2 million in FY2020 to a positive gross margin of $1.5 million in FY2021.

FY2021 REVENUE PER SEGMENT & PRODUCT

During FY2021, Adacel was awarded two major ATM systems contracts from Saint Lucia Air and Seaports Authority (SLASPA) in January 2021 and Seychelles Civil Aviation Authority (SCAA) in June 2021. With the successful completion of the Fiji behind us and Guadeloupe expected to be completed in FY2022, we expect the Aurora ATM system with Approach and Tower Control capabilities to deliver positive financial performance with the two new contracts won in FY2021.

Services

In our Services segment, revenues decreased by $2.1 million or 6.9%, driven primarily by the decline of the US dollar, which directly impacts the reported revenue from our FAA ATOP program. In US$, Services revenues increased by 3.7%. The ATOP contract continues to be a significant contributor to the services segment. ATM services revenues accounted for 48.9% of consolidated revenues in FY2021, compared to 54.7% last year. The ATC services revenues accounted for 20.5% of FY2021 consolidated revenues, virtually unchanged from FY2020. We continue to work closely with Leidos and the FAA to ensure the successful sustainment and enhancement of ATOP.

FINANCIAL POSITION

The company's net assets increased by 27.3%, compared with the previous year which was largely attributable to the current year's profit and cash generation.

The company's receivables and cash flow management continue to support overall strength in working capital. Cash and cash equivalents more than doubled when compared to prior year. Strong cash conversion from projects completed in FY2021, the collection of accounts receivable as well as proceeds of various government grants all contributed to an increase in cash. Trade receivables decreased during the year, despite the slight increase in overall sales, mainly because of the timing of contracts, completion of key milestones, and the timing of collection.

Trade & other payables decreased during the year due to the settlement of the previous year's non-recurring litigation costs.

TAX

Adacel has carry-forward tax losses and credits available in various jurisdictions to offset future taxable profits. At 30 June 2021, reflecting the Board's and management's confidence in future profitability, the Company has a net deferred tax asset of $3.6 million (FY2020: $3.7 million) relating to available tax credits. This deferral resulted in a net tax expense for the year ended 30 June 2021. Tax credits continue to be recognised and utilised in accordance with the Company's policy and applicable accounting standards.

COVID-19 SUPPORT

During fiscal year 2021, the Company was eligible for a grant of $1,601,000 under the CEWS program (2020: $784,000) and $106,000 under the CERS program (2020: $nil). The Company was eligible for government assistance of $810,000 under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) in the United States. Of this amount, $786,000 was repaid directly to affected employees.

On 13 April 2021, the Company also received loan proceeds of USD $770,289 under the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP"). The PPP, established as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act"), provides for loans to qualifying businesses for amounts up to 2.5 times of the average monthly payroll expenses of the qualifying business. The Small Business Administration ("SBA") will forgive the proceeds received if eligibility and other criteria are met related to use of the funds, at which time the Company will recognize the forgiven amount as income. The unforgiven portion of the PPP loan is payable over five years at an interest rate of 1%, with a deferral of payments for the first 16 months.

DIVIDENDS

The Board has declared a final dividend of 3.25 cents per share, unfranked. The total dividends declared for the year of 6.00 cents per share amount to approximately 60% of PBT for FY2021. The dividend will have a Record Date of 1 September 2021 and will be paid on 15 September 2021.

KEY RISKS AND BUSINESS CHALLENGES

COVID-19 Pandemic Risk Factors Mitigation

Throughout the FY2021, we continued to operate based on our company's Disaster Recovery Plan as the majority of the Adacel team telecommuted. The Board of Directors and Adacel's Executive Team, charged with overseeing the company's health during this unique crisis, continued with its adopted mitigation strategies to ensure the well-being of our employees while meeting our commitments to Adacel's customers and shareholders.

COVID-19 continues to be a global risk. As vaccines became more available worldwide, different industries and operations were starting to slowly resume operations. Yet, lack of inoculations combined with new variants, such as Delta, continue to threaten a steady economic recovery. In FY2021, the Adacel team members resumed annual visits at customer locations, and we started, once again, to host training classes in the Orlando office. We foresee the COVID-19 pandemic to continue to affect our operations, but to a lesser degree, as businesses adjust to a new normal.

Business Risks

The Company plays a significant role in the global market of providing crucial software used in air traffic management systems and critical tools used in the training of air traffic controllers, for both civil and military organisations. Adacel also provides a comprehensive suite of services to assist its customers and global aviation authorities in delivering high levels of safety and efficiency for global air travel.

Below are the key risks for Adacel that we are closely monitoring and mitigating.

- Competition/Revenue: The Company sells its products and services in highly competitive international markets. New participants have emerged in recent years and the competitive environment includes companies positioning themselves to increase their market share. Most of the Company's competitors in the simulation and air traffic management markets are also involved in other major segments of the aerospace and defence industry. Some of them are larger than Adacel, and may have greater financial, technical, marketing, manufacturing and distribution resources which could adversely affect Adacel's ability to compete successfully and grow. This risk is being addressed through the recent restructuring of the business development function and the expansion of product and service capabilities through technological improvements. The Company is also assessing the potential to acquire complimentary businesses.
- Customer Concentration: During the 2021 financial year, revenues of approximately 69% have been derived from 3 external customers. While the Company has been successful in extending many of its contracts with major partners, there is always a risk about the continuity of these programs. The renewal of contracts remains a risk that Adacel's management and the Board continues to actively monitor and manage. The Company continues to work closely with its customers to ensure we anticipate their business needs. We are also proactive in proposing alternative solutions and services.
- Intellectual property: the risk of the Company's intellectual property being infringed (illegally used by others) is being mitigated by way copyrights and contractual restrictions, such as confidentiality agreements, patents and licences as well as encryption.
- Product integration and program management: The Company could be negatively affected if its products do not successfully integrate or operate with other sophisticated software, hardware, computing, and communications systems that are also continually evolving. If significant, unexpected difficulties on a project occur, additional engineering and other resources may be required which may impact timing and profitability. Management monitors progress on all projects and works closely with its customers to ensure we can resolve unexpected difficulties in a timely and efficient manner.
- Talent: The talents of a number of key personnel contribute significantly to the Company's operational effectiveness and performance. The policies that management and the Board have in place to retain talent include participation in an appropriate incentive arrangement.

The Company remains well-placed under the leadership of its Chief Executive Officer Daniel Verret.

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN THE STATE OF AFFAIRS

There was no significant change in the state of affairs of the Company during the period.

STRATEGIC ACTIVITIES AND OUTLOOK

With the appointment of the new Vice President, Business Development and Strategy, the Company continues to focus on its core technologies and markets. Adacel is actively pursuing initiatives aimed at improving the Company's Systems segment and the maturation in its key markets. With the restructuring of its business development force, Adacel will take a fresh approach on key international markets and further refine and expand its product and services capabilities.

Notable developments:

- In FY2021, Fiji Airports commissioned the new Aurora for En Route and Tower Control. The Aurora system, which has been historically known as an oceanic ATM system, now integrates oceanic, approach, and tower control capabilities. With other Aurora projects under way and new contracts wins in FY2021 from St. Lucia Air and Seaports Authority and Seychelles Civil Aviation Authority, we are confident Adacel can deliver smaller land-based ATM systems throughout the world.
- In the ATC segment, in FY2021 the team has launched several enhancements to streamline troubleshooting and testing processes with our customers, most notably the MaxSim Cloud. We will further expand this product, which we believe will not only enhance customer experience, but it will also improve our productivity and help expand the list of services, such as remote training.

COVID-19 pandemic will continue to affect our business. Air Navigation Service Providers' and Airport Authorities' revenues were especially hard hit by the pandemic. As a result, short-term, some of these providers will face challenges to fund new projects. At the same time, we remain confident opportunities will continue to exist in both ATC and ATM markets, as ageing ATM and ATC systems will require replacement to meet the ever-evolving technology and regulation safety requirements.

The Company has elected to change its presentation currency from Australian dollars to United States dollars effective 1 July 2021. For FY2022 assuming a steady recovery from the COVID-19 disruption we anticipate a profit before tax of between $5.7 million and $6.0 million compared to approximately US$5.7 million in FY2021.

REMUNERATION REPORT

REMUNERATION REPORT

The remuneration report is set out under the following main headings:

- A. Principles used to determine the nature and amount of remuneration
- B. Details of remuneration
- C. Service agreements
- D. Share-based compensation

The information provided in this remuneration report has been audited as required by section 308(3C) of the Corporations Act 2001.

A. PRINCIPLES USED TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND AMOUNT OF REMUNERATION.

The Adacel Board has determined policies in relation to the remuneration of directors and executives as follows:

Non-executive Directors

Non-executive Directors are remunerated by fixed annual fees, superannuation, and from time-to-time may also be issued share options or equity in place of higher cash fees.

The level of annual Directors' fees is reviewed by the Remuneration Committee and the Board, considering several factors, including the range of Directors' fees paid in the market, and the Company's costs and operating performance. The maximum total payable to Directors for Directors' Fees is approved from time to time by shareholders in general meeting and was last set at $500,000 per annum at the 2013 Annual General Meeting. At the 17 November 2020 AGM, 89.01% of the votes received supported the adoption of the remuneration report for the year ended 30 June 2021. The Company did not receive any specific feedback at the AGM regarding its remuneration practices.

Based on the Company's size and resources, from time-to-time, non-executive Directors may also be issued options or equity as part of their remuneration in place of a higher cash fee. Options or equity would be issued after consideration by the Remuneration Committee and the Board and are subject to shareholder approval at a general meeting.

Senior Executives

Under the Company's constitution, remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer or equivalent position, subject to other provisions in any contract between the executive and the Company, may be by fixed salary or participation in the profits of the Company and not be by commission on or percentage of operating revenue. Other senior executives are remunerated by fixed salary and performance-based bonuses. Remuneration packages will generally be set to be competitive to both retain executives and attract experienced executives to the Company.

Where packages comprise a fixed element and variable incentive components, the variable components will depend on the Company's and/or personal performance. Short-term incentives may include annual cash incentives on meeting specific performance criteria agreed upon at Board level. The amount of the incentive will depend upon the extent that the measure is exceeded.

To provide long-term incentives, senior executives may also participate in the Executive Share Option and Performance Rights Plan. The options and performance rights are issued with conditions linked to specific vesting conditions tied to the financial performance of the Company over the vesting period.

Short-Term Incentives

For several executives in the consolidated entity, an element of their remuneration may be based upon annual bonuses, usually dependent on the satisfaction of various performance conditions. For the year ended 30 June 2021, the Board approved short-term incentives for these executives as shown in Section B below based on quantitative and qualitative performance factors in accordance with the provisions of the short-term incentive plan. The following table compares earnings and all bonuses paid or accrued over the past five years.

YEAR	Profit Before Tax $'000's	Profit After Tax $'000's	Range of Share Price	Bonus Earned $'000's	Ordinary Dividend Declared (per share) Cents
	$	$	$
2017	7,851	9,279	2.14 to 3.40	555	4.0
2018	9,512	7,717	1.69 to 3.09	644	4.5
2019	(1,954)	(2,697)	0.40 to 1.66	-	2.0

2021	7,658	7,331	0.43 to 1.01	241	6.0

Long-Term Incentives

For a number of the executives in the consolidated entity, at the discretion of the Remuneration Committee, an element of their remuneration may be by way of participating in the Executive Share Option and Performance Rights Plan. Share options and performance rights are subject to performance conditions. Exercise prices of options are also set to ensure that employees will benefit by exercising their options if there has been a rise in the share price. The Executive Share Option and Performance Rights Plan is described in Note 36 and is summarised in Section D below.

Benefits

Executives receive benefits including health insurance and disability insurance.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated. The financial statements are for the consolidated entity consisting of Adacel Technologies Limited and its subsidiaries.

(a) Basis of preparation

This general purpose financial report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board and the Corporations Act 2001. Adacel Technologies Limited is a for-profit entity for the purpose of preparing the financial statements.

Compliance with IFRS

The consolidated financial statements of Adacel Technologies Limited also comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) (the financial statements). These financial statements have been approved by the Board on August 12, 2021.

Early adoption of standards

Adacel Technologies Limited does not intend to adopt any new standards prior to the due date.

Going concern basis of preparation

This general purpose financial report has been prepared on a going concern basis following the directors' consideration of the operating plans and budgets for the period of 12 months from the date of signing the financial statements, and the financing arrangements discussed in note 22.

Historical cost convention

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements, are disclosed in note 3.

(b) Principles of consolidation

Subsidiaries

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the assets and liabilities of all subsidiaries of Adacel Technologies Limited ("Company", "parent entity") as at 30 June 2021 and the results of all subsidiaries for the year then ended. Adacel Technologies Limited and its subsidiaries together are referred to in this financial report as the Company or the consolidated entity.

Subsidiaries are all entities over which the Company has control. The Company controls an entity when the Company is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Company. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Company.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between companies that form part of the consolidated entity are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Company.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated income statement, statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of financial position respectively.

(c) Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The chief operating decision maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the CEO. The Company's segments are consistent with the previous year.

(d) Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Company's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ('the functional currency'). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Australian dollars, which is Adacel Technologies Limited's functional and presentation currency.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in profit or loss.

(iii) Company's entities

The results and financial position of all the Company entities (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses for each profit and loss are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(e) Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are net of returns, trade allowances, duties and taxes paid. Revenue is derived from various products and services which are recognised when performance obligations are considered met. The method used is selected on the basis of that which best represents the nature of the contract and the performance obligations within each contract whereby different methods of recognition can be used across separate performance obligations within a single contract.

Revenue from rendering of support and services (including field service support and Simcare maintenance) is recognised over a period of time depending upon contractual terms. For fixed price contracts, revenue is recognised on a straight line basis as the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the performance obligation.

For contracts that include time and materials invoicing, mainly based on hourly rates, revenue is recognised monthly based on the actual time and materials incurred to which the Company has a right to invoice. Customers are invoiced as per the contract on a monthly or weekly basis and consideration is payable when invoiced.

Revenue from license sales of standard software products is recognised at a point in time when control has been transferred to the customer, usually only after the delivery and client acceptance of the products. These products are off-the-shelf and the customer does not have the ability to request specific tailoring.

Revenue from system and license sales of software products is recognised over time in contracts that generally have multiple sites and where the customer can request a significant amount of tailoring. In these cases, the Company's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Company and the Company generally has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date. Revenue to be recognised is measured using the percentage of completion method, based on the actual labour costs incurred to the end of the reporting period as a proportion of the total labour costs expected to be provided over the life of the contract. Revenue is recognised at a point in time in the case where the contract requires the customer to provide acceptance before the Company can have a right to payment for performance completed, unless the Company has objective evidence that all criteria for acceptance is satisfied.

The Company has a number of contracts that offer extended warranty terms to the customers. The provision of extended warranty terms is considered a separate performance obligation. Revenue attributable to the extended warranties is recognized over time on a straight line basis.

Estimates of revenues, costs or extent of progress toward completion are revised if circumstances change. Any resulting increases or decreases in estimated revenues or costs are reflected in profit or loss in the period in which the circumstances that give rise to the revision become known by management. Losses on contracts are recognised in full when identified.

Typically, the Company has a right to invoice and receive payment based on the contractual terms with the customers. Payment received before control passes is recognised as an advance from customers. The amount of consideration does not contain a significant financing component as payment terms are usually less than one year.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Interest revenue is recognised on a time proportionate basis that takes into account the effective yield on the financial asset.

Dividends are recognised as revenue when the right to receive payment is established.

Research and Development (R&D) Tax Credits are recognised as other income in the period in which the related expenditures are incurred. An estimate is accrued based upon an analysis against the criteria in the related tax legislation and adjusted to the actual figure in subsequent periods once the tax return is completed.

(f) Government grants

Grants from governments are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Company will comply with all attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the profit and loss as other income over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred income and credited to the profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related assets.

Government grants received which contain a repayment clause are treated as a liability and measured using the amortised cost method. The liability is discounted using the implicit effective interest rate in the grant contract and remeasured at each balance date. The unwind of the discounting is included within finance expense, and the remeasurement included within other expenses. Where the repayment clause can be forgiven by the lender, the Company records the related grant once the lender has forgiven the repayment clause.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(g) Income tax

The income tax expense or revenue for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses and credits.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. Deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if there is convincing evidence that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except where it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. If so, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(h) Cash and cash equivalents

For cash flow statement presentation purposes, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown as part of current liabilities on the balance sheet.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(i) Trade receivables and accrued revenue

(i) Trade receivables

Trade receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. Trade receivables payment terms are contained within the contract documents for each project and generally vary from between 30 to 60 days after the end of the month of invoice. They are presented as current assets unless collection is not expected for more than 12 months after the reporting date.

Collectability of trade receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis. Debtors, known to be uncollectible, are written off by reducing the carrying amount directly. In determining the recoverability of a trade or other receivable using the expected credit loss model, a risk analysis is performed by the Company considering the type and age of the outstanding receivables, the creditworthiness of the counterparty, contract provisions, letter of credit and timing of payment. The amount of the impairment allowance is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. Cash flows relating to short-term receivables are not discounted if the effect of discounting is immaterial.

The amount of the impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss within other expenses. When a trade receivable for which an impairment allowance had been recognised becomes uncollectible in a subsequent period, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against other expenses in profit or loss.

(ii) Accrued revenue

Accrued revenue represents revenue that has been recognised, but which has not been invoiced to the customer at the statement of financial position date.

(j) Security deposits

Security deposits are carried at the amounts paid to suppliers in relation to contract performance or the rental of offices. Security deposits are refundable following successful performance of contractual obligations.

(k) Inventories

Works in progress is stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Costs deferred to work in progress comprise direct materials and direct labour. These costs are charged as expenses when the related revenue is recognised.

(l) Investments and other financial assets

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for those with maturities greater than 12 months after the reporting period, which are classified as non-current assets. Loans and receivables are included in trade and other receivables in the balance sheet (note 10). Loans and receivables are carried at amortised cost.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(m) Derivatives and hedging activities

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period. The accounting for subsequent changes in fair value depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged.

Adacel does not enter into hedges for specific transactions, however, may utilise forward exchange contracts for currencies that it may deal in. It may also enter into contracts with customers where the payment currency is not the functional currency of each company, and therefore giving rise to an embedded derivative. The remeasurement of these derivatives at balance date gives rise to a gain or loss which is recognised immediately in profit and loss.

(n) Fair Value Estimation

The fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities must be estimated for recognition and measurement or for disclosure purposes.

The nominal value less estimated credit adjustments of trade receivables and payables are assumed to approximate their fair values. The fair value of financial liabilities for disclosure purposes is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate that is available to the Company for similar financial instruments.

Details on how the fair value of financial instruments is determined are disclosed in note 2.

(o) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the statement of comprehensive income during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation on plant & equipment assets is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Class of Fixed Assets	Depreciation Rate
Leasehold improvements	5 - 10 years
Furniture and fittings	4 - 8 years
Computer Equipment	4 - 8 years
Software	2 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with the carrying amount. These are included in profit and loss.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(p) Intangible assets

(i) Goodwill

Goodwill on acquisitions of subsidiaries is included in intangible assets. Goodwill on acquisitions of associates is included in investments in associates. Goodwill is not amortised. Instead, goodwill is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired and is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Gains and losses on the disposal of an entity include the carrying amount of goodwill relating to the entity sold.

(ii) Intellectual property

Intellectual property (IP) is carried at cost and is amortised on a straight-line basis over the periods of the expected benefit. The Board has established a process to review the value of the Company's intellectual property assets, on a timely basis, for recoverable amount assessment purposes. IP is being amortised between 5 and 10 years representing the expected benefit.

(iii) Research and development

Expenditure on research activities, undertaken with the prospect of obtaining new scientific or technical knowledge and understanding, is recognised in profit and loss as an expense when it is incurred.

Expenditure on development activities, being the application of research findings or other knowledge to a plan or design for the production of new or substantially improved products or services before the start of commercial production or use, is capitalised as internally developed intangibles if the product or service is technically and commercially feasible and adequate resources are available to complete development. The expenditure capitalised comprises all directly attributable costs, including costs of materials, services, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of overheads. Other development expenditure is recognised in profit and loss as an expense as incurred. Capitalised development expenditure is stated at cost less accumulated amortisation.

Capitalised assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

(q) Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of the financial year, which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days after the month of recognition. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months from the reporting date. They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(r) Advance payments from customers

Advance payments from customers represent amounts invoiced to customers in excess of the amount of revenue recognised on contracts. Services for these contracts will be rendered and revenue will be recognised in future periods.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(s) Leases

The Company leases various offices and equipment. Rental contracts are typically made for a fixed period of 3 to 10 years but may have extension options. Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the lease asset is available for use by the Company. Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period. The right-of-use asset is depreciated over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of fixed payments. The lease payments are discounted using the lessee's incremental borrowing rate. Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability less any lease incentives received.

(t) Onerous contracts

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived from the contract are less than the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under that contract, and only after any impairment losses to assets dedicated to that contract have been recognised. The provision recognised is based on the excess of the estimated cash flows to meet the unavoidable costs under the contract over the estimated cash flows to be received in relation to the contract, having regard to the risks of the activities relating to the contract. The net estimated cash flows are discounted using market yields at balance date on national government guaranteed bonds with terms to maturity and currency that match, as closely as possible, the expected future payments, where the effect of discounting is material.

(u) Provisions

Provisions for legal claims and service warranties are recognised when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

For similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations is small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the reporting date. The discount rate used to determine the present value reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as an interest expense.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(v) Employee benefits

(i) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave, and long service leave are recognized in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. Liabilities for accumulating sick leave are recognized when the leave is taken and measured at the rates paid or payable. The liability for long service leave is recognized in the provision for employee benefits. All other short-term employee benefit obligations including annual leave are presented as payables.

(ii) Other long-term employee benefit obligations

These are liabilities for long service leave and annual leave which are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service. They are therefore recognised in the provision for employee benefits and measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period. Consideration is given to expected future wage and salary levels, experience of employee departures and periods of service. Expected future payments are discounted using market yields at the end of the reporting period of corporate bonds with terms and currencies that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows. Remeasurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in profit or loss.

The obligations are presented as current liabilities in the statement of financial position if the entity does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least twelve months after the reporting period, regardless of when the actual settlement is expected to occur.

(iii) Superannuation

Contributions are made by the consolidated entity to defined contribution employee superannuation funds and are charged as expenses when incurred. Amounts outstanding at balance date are recognised in trade creditors.

(iv) Share-based payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via the Executive Share Option and Performance Rights Plan. The fair value of options and performance rights granted under the Executive Share Option and Performance Rights Plan is recognised as an employee benefit expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options and performance rights granted and likelihood of achieving performance conditions.

The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each period, the entity revises its estimates of the number of options and performance rights that are expected to vest. It recognizes the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in profit or loss, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

The fair value at grant date is independently determined using a variety of option and performance rights pricing models that take into account the exercise price, the term of the option and performance rights, the vesting and performance criteria, the impact of dilution, the non-tradeable nature of the option or performance rights, the share price at grant date and expected price volatility of the underlying share, the expected dividend yield and the risk-free interest rate.

(v) Bonus plans

The Company recognises a liability where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

(vi) Termination benefits

Liabilities for termination benefits are recognised when a detailed plan for the terminations has been developed and a valid expectation has been raised in those employees affected that the terminations will be carried out. The liabilities for termination benefits are recognised in other creditors unless the amount or timing of the payments is uncertain, in which case they are recognised as provisions.

(vii) Employee benefit on-costs

Employee benefit on-costs, including payroll tax, are recognised and included in the employee benefit liabilities and costs when the employment to which they relate has occurred.

(w) Contributed equity

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options for the acquisition of a business are included in the cost of the acquisition as part of the purchase consideration.

If the entity reacquires its own equity instruments, e.g. as a result of a share buy-back, those instruments are deducted from the equity and the associated shares are cancelled. No gain or loss is recognised in the profit or loss and the consideration paid including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes) is recognised directly in equity.

(x) Earnings per share

(i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit/(loss) attributable to equity holders of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares, by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares and the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming their conversion.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(y) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of associated GST, unless the GST incurred is not recoverable from the taxation authority. In this case it is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included with other receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing or financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to the taxation authority, are presented as operating cash flow.

(z) Parent entity financial information

The financial information for the parent entity, Adacel Technologies Limited, disclosed in note 37, has been prepared on the same basis as the consolidated financial statements, except as set out below.

Investments in controlled entities are carried in the Company's financial statements at the lower of cost and recoverable amount.

(aa) Rounding of amounts

The Company is an entity to which relief is available under the Australian Securities & Investment Commission Corporations (Rounding in Financial/Directors Reports) Instrument 2016/191. The amounts contained in this financial report have been rounded off to the nearest thousand dollars, or in some cases to the nearest dollar.

(ab) New accounting standards and interpretations

- (i) New and amended standards adopted by the Company
 - (a) AASB 2018-7 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Definition of Material
 - (b) AASB 2018-6 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Definition of a Business
 - (c) AASB 2019-3 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Interest Rate Benchmark Reform
 - (d) AASB 2019-5 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Disclosure of the Effect of New IFRS Standards Not Yet issued in Australia
 - (e) Conceptual Framework for Financial Reporting and AASB 2019-1 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – References to the Conceptual Framework.

The amendments listed above did not have any impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

2. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks; market risks (including currency risk and interest rate risk), credit risk, and liquidity risk. The Company's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the financial performance of the Company. The Company may use derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange contracts to manage certain risk exposures. The Company uses different methods to measure different types of risk to which it is exposed. These methods include sensitivity analysis in the case of interest rate, foreign exchange and other price risks, and aging analysis for credit risk.

Risk management is carried out by the Chief Financial Officer, or equivalent, under policies approved by the Board of Directors. The Board provides principles for overall risk management, as well as other specific policy areas such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments, and investment of excess liquidity.

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The consolidated entity operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from currency exposures primarily to the US Dollar and European Euro.

Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency. The risk is measured using sensitivity analysis and cash flow forecasting. To minimise the exposure, the Company manages the natural hedges that may exist and, when significant transactions with external customers or suppliers are conducted in currencies other than the functional currency, forward exchange contracts may be put into place to minimise the risk.

The Company's exposure to foreign currency risk at the reporting date was as follows

Values are shown in foreign currencies

	30 June 2021		30 June 2020
	USD $'000	EURO E'000	USD $'000	EURO E'000
Cash and cash equivalents	2,572	1,437	276	993

Security Deposits with RBC & BMO	38	-	38	-
Trade and other payables	(32)	(19)	(332)	(18)

Sensitivity

Based on the financial instruments held at 30 June 2021, had the Australian dollar strengthened/weakened by 10% against the US Dollar, with all other variables held constant, the Company's post tax profit for the year would have been $771,000 lower/$630,000 higher (in 2020, the post-tax profit would have been $384,000 lower/$470,000 higher).

Had the Australian dollar strengthened/weakened by 10% against the EURO, with all other variables held constant, the Company's post tax profit for the year would have been $738,000 lower/$603,000 higher (in 2020, the post-tax profit would have been $198,000 lower/$242,000 higher).

Aside from the effect upon profit, there would be no further direct impact on equity resulting from this movement.

(ii) Price risk

The consolidated entity is not exposed to equity securities price risks since all investments are impaired and recorded at the impaired values. None of these impaired investments are in publicly traded equity vehicles. The consolidated entity is also not exposed to commodity price risk.

2. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (CONTINUED)

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Company's main interest rate risk arises on cash balances held and on its bank facility with the Royal Bank of Canada.

Cash at bank and borrowings under the facility are subject to variable interest rates. Excess cash is placed in short-term deposit or high-interest earning accounts, which is also subject to interest rate risk. The Company monitors the movements in interest rates, but to date has not deemed it necessary or cost effective to use derivative financial instruments to manage such risk. As at the end of the reporting period, the Company had the following deposits and borrowings subject to interest rate variations.

	Consolidated
	30 June 2021		30 June 2020
	Weighted average interest rate	Balance	Weighted average interest rate	Balance
	%	AUD $'000	%	AUD $'000
Cash at bank	0.00	11,597	0.09	5,177
Net exposure to cash flow interest rate risk		11,597		5,177

Sensitivity

The Company's main interest rate risk arises from cash equivalents, loans and other receivables with variable interest rates. However, the impact of any anticipated movements in interest rates would not have a material impact on the results of the Company. See note 23 for information on the fair value of loan.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents as well as credit exposures to customers, including outstanding receivables. An analysis of outstanding receivables is included in note 10.

The Company has a significant concentration of risk due to having significant accounts receivable with US government or related entities, however, due to the nature of this customer base, there is no significant exposure to credit risk.

For banks and financial institutions, only independently rated parties with a minimum rating of 'A' are accepted.

The credit quality of financial assets that are neither past due nor impaired can be assessed by reference to external credit ratings (if available) or to historical information about counterparty default rates.

2. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (CONTINUED)

(c) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities, the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities and the ability to close out market positions. The Company manages liquidity risk by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows and matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities. Due to much of the business being project driven, the Chief Financial Officer aims to maintain flexibility in funding by keeping committed credit lines available with the Royal Bank of Canada. Surplus funds are generally only invested in short-term bank deposits to enable ready access to the funds as required.

Financing arrangements

The consolidated entity had access to undrawn borrowing facilities at the reporting date as disclosed in note 22.

Maturities of financial instruments

The tables below analyse the consolidated entity's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the reporting date to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

Total	7,338	1,396	2,787	3,226	14,746	13,520

The book value of the liabilities above approximates fair value.

2. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (CONTINUED)

d) Fair value measurements

The fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities must be estimated for recognition and measurement or for disclosure purposes.

AASB 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures requires disclosure of fair value measurements by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- a. quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1)
- b. inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (as prices) or indirectly (derived from prices) (level 2), and
- c. inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs) (level 3).

None of the consolidated entity's assets and liabilities were required to be measured and recognised at fair value for 30 June 2021 and 30 June 2020.

If they were required, the fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) would be determined using valuation techniques. The Company uses a variety of methods and makes assumptions that are based on market conditions existing at the end of each reporting period. The fair value of forward exchange contracts is determined using forward exchange market rates at the end of the reporting period. Fair value is established by reference to forward exchange rates quoted by specialist departments from financial institutions.

3. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the entity and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The Company makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Impact of COVID-19 pandemic

As at 30 June 2021, the Company performed an assessment of the impact of the uncertainties around the outbreak of the novel strain of the coronavirus, specifically identified as COVID-19 pandemic, on projects, assets and liabilities. This assessment, which required the use of significant judgements and estimates, had no material impact on the Company's projects, assets and liabilities. Various forms of government support were received during the financial year as disclosed in note 6 and note 23. As an evolving risk, the duration and full financial and operational effects of the COVID-19 pandemic are unknown, and accordingly estimates will continue to be reviewed during fiscal year 2022.

Contract revenue recognised at balance date

The Company reviews all contracts work in progress at the statement of financial position's date to determine the percentage of completion based on the forecasted costs to complete the project. Costs and revenues are brought to account based on the outcomes of the review, in accordance with the accounting policy stated in note 1(e). The judgements can only be finally confirmed at the point of completion of the contract and final delivery to the customer. This may result in differences between the revenue recognised at the statement of financial position's date and the amounts that are subsequently determined to be applicable. Any such differences are brought to account at the next contract review cycle.

Income taxes

The Company is subject to income taxes in Australia and jurisdictions where it has foreign operations. Significant judgement is required in determining the worldwide provision for income taxes. There are many transactions and calculations undertaken during the ordinary course of business for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. The Company estimates its tax liabilities based on the Company's understanding of the tax law. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

The Company recognises deferred tax assets relating to carried forward tax losses and tax credits to the extent that there is convincing evidence that there will be future taxable profits in the jurisdiction to which those losses and tax credits relate. The directors regularly monitor this matter in all companies. The directors have reassessed that there is enough convincing evidence of future taxable profits being available in Adacel Inc. to support the continuation of the recognition of a deferred tax asset. The deferred tax asset is reassessed and remeasured half yearly.

4. SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) Description of segments

Management has determined the operating segments based on the reports that are used to make strategic decisions. These reports are prepared by the CEO and reviewed by the Board monthly. The consolidated entity is organised on a global basis into these following segments:

Systems – Includes all sales of complex systems and products covering operational control as well as simulation and training. This segment also includes all hardware and software upgrade sales.

Services – Includes all recurring revenue, including all aspects of support, field services and on-site technical services.

Segment margin results are presented after the allocation of all direct project expenses, (labour, materials and other direct costs), as well as an allocation of costs from direct function areas such as engineering, testing and project management. Further costs from the indirect functions areas of HR, IT and Facilities are also allocated based upon direct labour heads.

(b) Notes to and forming part of the segment information

(i) Accounting policies

Segment information is prepared in conformity with the accounting policies of the entity as disclosed in note 1 and the accounting standard AASB 8 Segment Reporting. Segment revenues and expenses are those that are directly attributable to a segment and the relevant portion that can be allocated to the segment on a reasonable basis.

(ii) Inter-segment transfers

Segment revenues, expenses and results include transfers between segments. Such transfers are priced on an "arm's length" basis and are eliminated on consolidation.

(iii) Significant Customers

During the 2021 financial year, revenues of approximately 69% have been derived from 3 external customers. These customers are in North America and Europe, and the amount of revenues from them during the year were $17.7 million, $5.8 million and $4.2 million respectively. In 2020, 70% of revenues were from 3 customers, individually amounting to $19.7 million, $5.5 million and $2.5 million respectively.

8. INCOME TAX (CONTINUED)

On March 27, 2020, the CARES Act was enacted to address the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic in the United States. Among other things, the CARES Act allows a five-year carryback period for tax losses generated in 2019 through 2021. As a result, an income tax benefit of $2.6 million was recorded in 2020 in connection with a tax loss generated during fiscal year 2020 that the CARES Act will now allow to be carried back to 2015, a tax year when the U.S. federal income tax rate was 35%. There is no income tax benefit for fiscal year 2021.

(b) Foreign exchange and interest rate risk

Information about the Company's exposure to foreign currency risk and interest rate risk in relation to trade and other receivables is provided in note 2.

(c) Fair value and credit risk

Due to the short-term nature of these receivables, their carrying amount is assumed to approximate their fair value.

The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying amount of each class of receivables mentioned above. Refer to note 2 for more information on the risk management policy of the Company and the credit quality of the entity's trade receivables.

Our audit approach

An audit is designed to provide reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement. Misstatements may arise due to fraud or error. They are considered material if individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report.

We tailored the scope of our audit to ensure that we performed enough work to be able to give an opinion on the financial report as a whole, taking into account the geographic and management structure of the Group, its accounting processes and controls and the industry in which it operates.

The Group is a developer of advanced simulation training systems and air traffic management automation solutions for the military and civil sectors. The Group's operations and executive team are based primarily in North America. The Group's operations are broken down into systems and services operating segments. The systems segment includes sale of advanced systems, technical software and hardware. The services segment includes development, support and field technical services.

Materiality	Audit scope	Key audit matters
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For the purpose of our audit we used overall Group materiality of $0.4 million, which represents approximately 1% of the Group's revenue. We applied this threshold, together with qualitative considerations, to determine the scope of our audit and the nature, timing and extent of our audit procedures and to evaluate the effect of misstatements on the financial report as a whole. We chose Group revenue because, in our view, it is the measure that is most representative of the Group's operations. We utilised a 1% threshold based on our professional judgement, noting it is within the range of commonly acceptable revenue related thresholds. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Our audit focused on where the Group made subjective judgements; for example, significant accounting estimates involving assumptions and inherently uncertain future events. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amongst other relevant topics, we communicated the following key audit matters to the Audit and Risk Management Committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Revenue recognition Recoverability of deferred tax assets These are further described in the Key audit matters section of our report.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial report for the current period. The key audit matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial report as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. Further, any commentary on the outcomes of a particular audit procedure is made in that context.

Inspected the Group's analysis of customer contracts and considered the appropriateness of significant judgements made related to its performance obligations under those contracts, in the determination of revenue recognition at either a point in time or over time against the requirements of Australian Accounting Standards. Assessed revenue recognised for customer contracts by performing the following procedures amongst others: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Re-performing calculations over the mathematical accuracy of a sample of percentage of completion calculations. Agreeing a sample of actual labour costs to approved timesheets and payroll records. Agreeing a sample of accrued costs (for example contractor costs) to date to supporting evidence or calculations. Compared actual and forecast contract profitability and enquired with management on a sample of projects where margins had deviated from forecasts.

the timing of recognising project based revenue (refer above).

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

- Agreed a sample of significant accrued revenue and outstanding accounts receivable balances to cash receipts subsequent to year end and enquired with management on significant unpaid balances.
- Evaluated the reasonableness of the disclosures made in note 1(e) and note 5 against the requirements of Australian Accounting Standards.

Recoverability of deferred tax assets

(Refer to note 8 Income tax and note 18 Deferred tax assets and liabilities)

The Group has unrecognised carry forward gross tax losses and tax credits amounting to $96.8 million as at 30 June 2021. These arise from different jurisdictions across the North American and Australian operations. While tax losses have no expiry date, Canadian Federal and Provincial tax credits expire after 10 years. The Group has assessed that there is convincing evidence of future taxable profits available in Canada sufficient to carry forward deferred tax assets of $4.4 million.

Australian Accounting Standards require deferred tax assets to be recognised only to the extent that it is probable that sufficient future taxable profits will be generated in order for the benefits of the deferred tax assets to be realised. These benefits are realised by reducing tax payable on future taxable profits.

We considered this a key audit matter due to the significant judgement required by the Group in assessing the timing and quantum of future taxable profits.

Together with PwC tax experts, we performed the following procedures amongst others:

- Assessed the appropriateness of the Group's policy for recognition of deferred tax assets in the context of the requirements of Australian Accounting Standards, considering the historical results and the appropriateness of significant assumptions used in the forecast results of the Group.
- Re-performed calculations over the mathematical accuracy of deferred tax calculations.
- Agreed tax rates used for deferred tax calculations to enacted or substantially enacted tax rates in each jurisdiction in which tax losses and tax credits existed.
- Agreed available carry forward tax losses and tax credits to the Group's filed tax returns.
- Compared the utilisation of deferred tax assets in the Group's current year filed tax returns to the Board approved forecasts made in the prior year, to determine the accuracy of the Group's budgeting process.
- Evaluated the reasonableness of the disclosures made in note 8 and 18 against the requirements of Australian Accounting Standards.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report.
