Jacqui Louez Schoorl, Jaxsta CEO and Co-Founder, stated, “We are thrilled to have the new structure of Jaxsta Pro ready and to move back to a paid model. Many users and advocates of Jaxsta have provided feedback on the use and value they receive from the platform, and this initial rollout will address a number of their requests. But it will not stop there! The Team has been working on a new range of incredible features which will be coming to our Jaxsta Plus service in the months to come - we have an exciting roadmap for Jaxsta Plus and business users which will keep our community growing. I’d like to take this opportunity to thank our wonderful CTO Michael Stone and our dedicated and brilliant development team for the incredible work they have put into this significant deployment and product release. To Beth Appleton our CMO and the marketing team who’s journey has really just begun, must also be recognised for the incredible work they’ve been doing in preparation for the launch and beyond”

The launch of Jaxsta Plus marks the return to a paid service for Jaxsta, which made Jaxsta Pro free in April 2020 in response to the COVID pandemic and its devastating impact on the global music industry.
