360 Capital Group (ASX:TGP) (the Group) announces that as part of its rationalisation of investment strategies, the Group has:

- 1/ Wound up 360 Capital Active Value Fund, sold Ralton Asset Management and exited the Group's strategy of Public Equity Funds to allow the Group to focus on higher margin Private Equity investing.
- 2/ The Group has also commenced a formal sale process on its co-investment and management rights to its Digital Infrastructure interests, including Global Data Centre Group (ASX: GDC) after receiving numerous approaches to acquire various interests in the Group's Digital Infrastructure interests.

The Group has approximately $65.5 million in capital invested in digital infrastructure strategies plus management rights, including Global Data Centre Group (ASX: GDC). The Group is the Responsible Entity as well as owning a 50% interest in the Investment Manager.

The Group has now decided that it will explore a sale of these interests, including the co-investment stakes and the management right interests and has commenced a formal process on the Group's interests in the Digital Infrastructure business JV.

The process only includes the Group's interests. Our JV Partner, David Yuile, MD 360 Capital Digital Infrastructure will continue to manage and own the other 50% of the management rights.

This process may take some time and there is no certainty that a transaction will occur. We will keep the market informed if and when any material events occur.

Authorised for release by Kimberley Child, Company Secretary.
