

Corum extends relationship with Sigma into WholeLife

Corum is excited to announce the extension of their head office suite of products with WholeLife pharmacies, a member of the Sigma Healthcare brands. Sigma Healthcare Limited (ASX: SIG) is the largest pharmacy network in Australia, with over 1,200 branded and independent stores.

For over 10 years Corum has been providing head office software to “Discount Drug Stores”, a member of the Sigma group. This extends Corum’s relationships with Sigma and represents another step in working with the wider Sigma network which also includes Amcal, Chemist King and Guardian stores.

Adam Goss, General Manager Pharmacy Sigma Group says, “the extension of our relationship will allow our WholeLife stores to manage key aspects of their business including marketing, pricing, and support internal office reporting. Through our partnership with Corum we are now able to progress our goal of streamlining our operations to create further efficiencies.”

Julian Sallabank, Managing Director of Corum Group adds, “We are extremely excited about the opportunity to extend our partnership with the Sigma Healthcare Group and support their continued growth through our head office software. Maximising pricing, promotions, and supplier information will drive increased efficiency and profitability for Sigma Head Office and each of their branded and independent stores.”

Corum looks forward to working with Sigma to achieve continued development for both businesses in the future.
