GPT responds to media speculation on Wollongong Central and Casuarina Square

In reference to various media articles recently published, The GPT Group ('GPT') confirms it is currently in discussions with two separate parties regarding the potential divestments of Wollongong Central and Casuarina Square. There is no certainty that these discussions will lead to either transaction being completed.

Wollongong Central is owned by the GPT Wholesale Shopping Centre Fund (GWSCF) and Casuarina Square is owned jointly by GPT and GWSCF.

GPT will update the market as appropriate.
