Dear Shareholder

Lynas Rare Earths AGM 2021

The performance of Lynas Rare Earths over the past 12 months has shown that we are a resilient business, able to respond and adapt to the challenges presented by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. This is demonstrated by the strong financial performance in the 2021 financial year, the continued progress on our Lynas 2025 projects including the Kalgoorlie Rare Earths Processing Facility project and our successful A$425 million equity raising.

The Board is looking forward to updating you on the events of the past year and plans for the future during the 2021 Annual General Meeting (AGM) of Lynas Rare Earths Limited, which will be held at 10.00am AEDT on Monday, 29 November 2021 at the Fullerton Hotel at 1 Martin Place, Sydney, NSW and simultaneously on the Lumi platform via <https://web.lumiagm.com/390749184>. Shareholders will be able to participate, ask questions and vote via the online platform during the meeting.

The Board is closely monitoring Australian government guidelines and we recognise the possibility that COVID-19 restrictions on travel and gatherings at the date of the AGM may require a fully virtual meeting. Lynas will provide updates through the ASX announcements platform and Lynas' website if the in person meeting will not proceed.

Shareholders will be able to participate, ask questions and vote in real time through our virtual meeting technology. If you cannot attend the AGM, either online or in person, you can lodge a directed proxy form before 10.00am Sydney time on 27 November 2021.
