

ASX RELEASE

12 October 2021

Resignation of Chief Financial Officer

Envirosuite advises of the resignation of Chief Financial Officer, Matthew Patterson, effective 12 November 2021.

Matthew joined Envirosuite as the Chief Financial Officer in June 2020, following the Finance integration of the EMS Bruel & Kjaer business into Envirosuite.

Envirosuite Chief Executive Officer Jason Cooper said "Matthew has been a trusted member and a valuable contributor to the executive leadership team, leading Finance, IT and HR during a period of significant transformation of Envirosuite. I would like to thank Matthew for his support and contribution to the Company and we wish him the very best for the future."

Matthew said "with the successful integration of the EMS Bruel & Kjaer business, and the recent capital raise to allow the business to accelerate its growth in the Americas and with EVS Water, it is now time to move onto new opportunities. I wish Jason and the entire Envirosuite team the very best and every success in the future."

Envirosuite has commenced the search for a new Chief Financial Officer and in the interim, responsibilities will be assumed by Michael Hamilton, Head of Finance.

Authorised for release by the Board of Envirosuite