

ASX RELEASE

VECTION DELIVERS STRONG START TO FY22

SEPTEMBER 2021 QUARTER (Q1 FY22) ACTIVITIES AND CASH FLOW REPORT

Real-time software company Vection Technologies Ltd (ASX:VR1)(Vection Technologies, Vection or the Company) is pleased to update the market on its activities for the quarter ended September 2021 and as of 29 October 2021.

Highlights:

- 172% cash receipts growth, compared to the previous quarter, to ~$2.8M - aligned with FY22 growth objectives
- Strong growth opportunity in FY22 underpinned by a FY22 TCV~$5M
- Strengthened Advisory Board with strategic appointment of Mr Vittorio Terzi (following first appointment of former CIO R&D of Mercedes-Benz, Dr Haasis)
- Strategic agreements underway to position the Company for further growth during FY22
- Company fully funded to deliver on its growth strategy with $6.8M of cash at bank
- Management to host an investor conference call on 3 November 2021 at 12pm AEDT

Overview:

Vection has achieved 172% growth in cash receipts to ~$2.8M for the quarter ended September 2021, compared to the previous quarter (June 2021: ~$1M), maintaining strong growth momentum aligned with the Company's FY22 growth objectives, further reinforced by ~$5M in FY22 Total Contract Value (TCV).

TCV Overview:

FY22 Total Contract Value (TCV) has steadily increased during the quarter to ~$5M. The increase in individual sales to customers was not individually material and are expected to complete with varying dates by the end of December 2021, in addition to subscription and maintenance packages to be invoiced during the current fiscal year with varying payment terms. The Company notes that quarterly cash receipts may vary depending on the solution and/or service provided to the end customer, and any individually material contract award will be separately announced to the market as applicable.

Quarterly Activities Overview:

Strategic Focus:

Global Operations:

During the quarter, the Company significantly progressed the integration of JMC Group (ASX: 15 June 2021) within the wider Vection group, restructuring its global management team, administration and sales infrastructure to enable significant cost efficiencies, increased sales opportunities and overall growth outcomes across its European, American and Asia-Pacific geographical divisions.

Advisory Board:

During the quarter, the Company established its Advisory Board to gain a technological advantage in specific verticals, gain wider market recognition and market positioning from a global standpoint and to drive material opportunities and ensure strategy is aligned with required market expectations. As part of this strategic effort, the Company appointed:

- Dr Siegmund Haasis: a highly experienced automotive executive with twenty-six years international digitization experience with Daimler/Mercedes-Benz (ASX: 21 July 2021), to assist with the Company's strategy within the global automotive industry.
- Mr Vittorio Emanuele Terzi: a renowned global advisor, appointed to assist the Company in its global strategic initiatives to partner with tier-1 consulting, industrial and technological partners focussing on the creation of value for all Vection's stakeholders (ASX: 20 October 2021). Mr Terzi also currently serves as independent director of Banca Generali S.p.A., a bank listed on the Italian bourse with a market capitalization of over $7 billion.

Vection Technologies is currently seeking to add globally experienced professionals to its advisory board, to strategically position as a global leader in the XR enterprise space.

Vertical Focus:

During the quarter, the Company's verticalization strategy has continued to demonstrate a strong commercial validity, diversifying the TCV metric by industry (refer to Figure 2) and providing strong opportunities for growth in currently underserved segments, expected to increase during the next quarters. Specifically, Vection has continued to set the foundations for incremental growth within the healthcare & pharma division, media & communication and gain wider market footprint with strategic consultancy partnerships. Further developments of key activities and achievements will be announced as applicable.

Technology Focus:

During the quarter, Vection has significantly progressed its strategic initiatives with technology partners to gain wider market presence and to achieve stronger opportunities for recurring revenue growth. In particular, Vection launched Mindesk for Autodesk Revit (ASX: 1 July 2021) gaining exposure to its ~11m AEC users¹. On 27 October 2021, Vection also announced the launch of its Webex integrated FrameS solution, a 3D collaborative app enabling hybrid workforces and unique 3D workflows directly within the Webex experience, expected for the second half of the 2022 fiscal year.

- M&A Update:

During the quarter, Vection Technologies' management has significantly progressed its strategic initiatives for inorganic growth, identifying multiple opportunities for value accretive acquisitions within the European, American and Asia-Pacific regions. The Company will separately announce any material progression to the market as applicable.

Company Quarterly Financial Overview:

During the quarter ended 30 September 2021, the Company continued its cash receipts growth trend, despite perduring uncertainty across diverse industries/verticals and geographies.

Total quarterly cash receipts from clients for the quarter were ~$2.8M (Q4 FY21 Cash Receipts from customers: ~$1.0M).

A robust cash balance of ~$6.8M (30 June 2021: ~$7.0M) continues to provide a strong base to pursue the aggressive 2021 growth strategy, including the delivery of well-executed M&A activities.

Business activities expenditure totalled ~$3.5M for the quarter consisting of operating costs of sales (~$1.3M), research and development (~$142k), administration (~$892) and staff costs (~$871k) with the balance to advertising and marketing and leased assets (combined ~$295k).

The Company expects to continue to significantly improve its underlying result in the following quarters as it implements significant efficiencies and grows its cash inflows from operating activities.

The aggregate amount of payments to related parties and their associates included in the current quarter cash flows from operating activities totalled ~$173k. These payments consisted of Directors' fees and salaries paid to directors. All payments were on normal commercial terms.

Outlook:

In the second quarter of fiscal year 2022, aligned with the previously stated verticalization strategy, Vection Technologies will continue its focus on:

- The reinforcement of the existing global infrastructure for the commercialisation of its core technology solutions;
- Continued creation of cross-functional efficiencies, synergies and sales opportunities for its increasing global presence;
- Increase its overall sales performance across EMEA, AMER and APAC;
- M&A opportunities in North America and globally, aligned with its overarching verticalization strategy;
- Key appointments of seasoned executives to pursue vertical specific strategies;
- Expanded sales and delivery teams in EMEA, AMER and APAC;
- Continued focus on the development of breakthrough technologies to support the Company's global commercial activities, within the requirements of Digital Transformation (DX) to support its core technology stack.
