Delivering outcomes for unitholders

The Board undertook a strategic assessment and refined AOF's objectives and strategy

Key Objectives

Strategy

To provide sustainable income returns via quarterly distributions and the potential for capital growth over the long-term by investing in a diversified portfolio of Australian properties

Focus on owning Australian office properties in metropolitan and CBD markets, complemented by a targeted and diversified portfolio of Australian real estate assets offering affordability, accessibility and amenity

The Proposal to merge AOF and DPF to create AUPF<sup>1</sup> has strategic and financial merit

The AOF RE Board considers the Proposal will provide a number of benefits to AOF unitholders

The AOF RE Board unanimously recommends AOF Unitholders VOTE IN FAVOUR of the Merger Resolutions

1. All references to Australian Unity Property Fund (AUPF) in this presentation assume the Proposal proceeds, which is subject to a number of conditions as detailed in the AOF Explanatory Memorandum, including the approval of AOF and DPF unitholders. There can be no certainty that these conditions will be satisfied or waived

The Independent Expert has concluded the Proposal is in the best interests of AOF Unitholders, in the absence of a Superior Proposal

Strategic rationale of the Proposal

The Proposal is expected to provide potential benefits to AOF unitholders

Key benefits to AOF unitholders

Increased sustainability of income and distributions, with enhanced medium term prospects

- Enhanced ability to execute value-add opportunities
- Exposure to a larger and more diversified portfolio
- A new debt facility and improved access to capital
- Increased relevance and liquidity with potential inclusion in additional ASX and global indices
- Experienced management team guided by a majority independent Board

Australian Unity managed with strong alignment of interests with unitholders

Creating a complementary portfolio, aligned with strategy

Diversified Australian real estate portfolio with attractive WALE and high occupancy

4. WALE means weighted average lease expiry in years, by gross property income as at 30 June 2021

Increased sustainability of income and distributions

The portfolio combination of AOF and DPF is expected to materially improve the overall income profile

- AOF will benefit from distribution accretion, a significant increase in future minimum rent receivable from tenants and a significantly longer WALE
  - AUPF FY22 distribution guidance: 15.5 cpu (current AOF guidance: 15.2 cpu)<sup>1</sup>
  - AUPF FY22 FFO guidance of 18.0 18.5 cpu (in line with current AOF guidance)<sup>2</sup>

Future minimum rent receivable from tenants ($ million)<sup>3</sup>

Improved sustainability of future income

- 1. This forecast is subject to no material change in current market conditions and no unforeseen events
- 2. FFO means Directors' assessment of Funds From Operations and is subject to no material change in current market conditions and no unforeseen events
- Source: AOF FY21 accounts, note 14(d); DPF FY21 accounts, note 13(d). AUPF minimum future lease payments receivable information for FY23 onwards is the sum of the minimum future lease payments receivable from AOF and DPF tenants under existing lease agreements for FY23 onwards, as at 30 June 2021. Implied AOF share of AUPF future minimum lease payments receivable from tenants for FY23 onwards, as at 30 June 2021, has been calculated by multiplying AUPF minimum future lease payments receivable information for FY23 onwards by 54%
- 4. As at 30 June 2021, adjusted for the acquisition of 96 York Street, Beenleigh which is expected to settle in January 2022 and proposed divestment of 32 Phillip Street, Parramatta
- 5. As at 30 June 2021, adjusted for the acquisition of 96 York Street, Beenleigh which is expected to settle in January 2022 and proposed divestment of 32 Phillip Street, Parramatta and 19 Corporate Avenue, Rowville

WALE materially increases to 4.9 years<sup>5</sup>

Lease expiry profile (by net lettable area)

Enhanced ability to execute value-add opportunities

The larger portfolio scale, increased level of geographic and tenant diversification, and greater access to capital markets will enhance AUPF's ability to deliver upon the combined portfolio's value-add opportunities

New opportunities<sup>1</sup>

North Blackburn Shopping Centre, VIC

Busselton Central Shopping Centre, WA

- Stage 1 commenced May 2020 (anticipated practical completion in February 2022) comprising a new Coles Supermarket (15-year lease), 11 specialties with fresh food mini major, upgraded tenant amenities and re-graded parking facilities
- Proposed stage 2 set to commence during 2022 and will see the remainder of the shopping centre refurbished and expanded; comprising new Aldi (10-year lease), upgraded existing Woolworths (12-year lease), childcare and medical centres and specialties
- 70% of Stage 2 income is pre-committed
- Stages 1 and 2 completed February 2020; included a Coles and mini major
- Stage 3 commenced in November 2021 (anticipated completion November 2022)
- Stage 3 links the existing centre, including a cinema, food and beverage precinct and improved amenity and activation of local area
- 70% of Stage 3 income is pre-committed

Exposure to a larger and more diversified portfolio

AUPF brings together a diversified portfolio of complementary assets and tenants with a focus on affordability, accessibility and amenity

- AOF Unitholders will gain exposure to a larger and more diversified $1.2 billion portfolio<sup>1</sup> of 18 real estate assets with 97% occupancy<sup>1</sup>, offering:
  - enhanced tenant diversification and lower overall  $\checkmark$ tenant concentration
  - $\checkmark$ exposure to new blue-chip tenants including Ampol, Woolworths, Australian Naval Infrastructure and Coles
  - a nationally diversified portfolio with a dominant  $\checkmark$ weighting to NSW
  - a quality real estate portfolio focused on affordability, V accessibility and amenity

As at 30 June 2021, adjusted for the acquisition of 96 York Street, Beenleigh which is expected to settle in January 2022 and proposed divestments of 32 Phillip Street, Parramatta and 19 Corporate Avenue, Rowville

New debt facility and improved access to capital

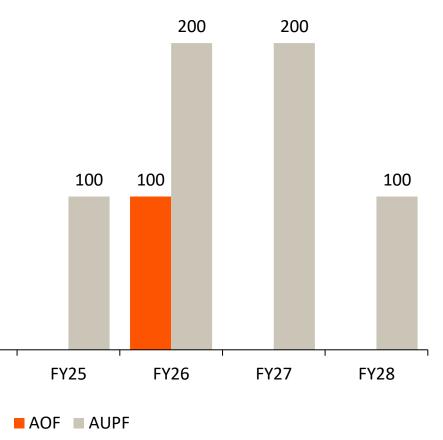

AUPF is expected to have in place a new $600 million debt facility with a 4.5 year average maturity sourced from five lenders at an expected all-in cost that is below AOF's existing cost of debt<sup>1</sup>

Key debt terms

- - Subject to a number of conditions. Forecast at implementation, based on the preferred banking groups having confirmed their commitment to provide this level of debt to AUPF, and assumed base rate and interest rate hedges, plus specified margins and line fees under the new debt facility
  - As at 24 August 2021, and incorporates the impact of restructuring interest rate swaps in June 2021
  - Based on expected facility limit and forecast capital expenditure, and excludes the impact of the acquisition of 96 York Street, Beenleigh and the proposed divestment of both 32 Phillip Street, Parramatta and 19 Corporate Avenue, Rowville

Debt maturity profile – AOF and AUPF ($ million)

Increased scale, relevance and liquidity

AUPF is expected to have a market capitalisation of ~$730 million<sup>1</sup>

This presents the opportunity for future index inclusion in indices such as the ASX/S&P 300 Index and FTSE EPRA Nareit Global Developed Index. Index inclusion may further increase the liquidity and relevance of AUPF Units

Market capitalisation of S&P/ASX 200 and S&P/ASX 300 A-REIT Index constituents ($bn)<sup>2</sup>

The independent expert has concluded that the Proposal is in the best interests of AOF Unitholders in the absence of a Superior Proposal and has valued AUPF in the range of $2.38 - $2.68 per unit

Implied based on AUPF pro forma NTA of $2.56 per unit, refer to pro forma balance sheet in appendix

Source: Capital IQ as at 12 November 2021

Experienced manager with strong alignment

AUPF will be governed by a majority independent board of directors and managed by Australian Unity

Continuity of Board, asset management and tenant relationships with the AUPF management team comprising executives from both the existing AOF and DPF management teams

The AOF Board unanimously recommends AOF Unitholders vote in favour of the Merger Resolutions

The independent expert has concluded that the Proposal is in the best interests of AOF Unitholders, in the absence of a Superior Proposal

Peter Day Independent Non-Executive Director and Chairman

Australian Unity support and alignment

Australian Unity has indicated an intention to commit ~$35 million to support the merger, including:

- acquisition of DPF's ~$25 million investment in AOF at the pro forma NTA of $2.56 per unit<sup>1</sup>
- AU Group Managed Entities' AUPF ownership at Implementation expected to be ~10.7%<sup>2</sup>
- AU Group Managed Entities targeting an initial total holding in AUPF of ~12%, to be achieved including by way of purchasing units on-market<sup>3</sup>

If the Proposal is implemented, DPF intends to sell its approximately 9.7 million AOF units to a wholly owned subsidiary of Australian Unity at a price of $2.56 per unit, reflecting the expected AUPF pro forma NTA If the Proposal is implemented, the total holding of AU Group Managed Entities is expected to be approximately 30.8 million AUPF units, representing approximately 10.7% of the expected total AUPF units on issue Subject to funding being made available from the AUL Group's parent company, the Proposal proceeding and market conditions
