CEO Comment

Michael Ivanchenko, CV1's CEO, said, "With strong recent employment demand across the region, CV1, has seen a corresponding uptick in order flows, further validating our strategy of pursuing a B2B focus. CV1's innovations, such as our Covid-vaccine status check, continue to gain traction with a market needing certainty and reliability as it grows.

We are confident that as the full benefits of our workforce compliance monitoring and management software, Cited, are brought to the market, CV1 will be able to accelerate further growth through the balance of FY22."
