

MARKET RELEASE

Resignation of Director

Melbourne, Australia, 25 November, 2021 – Medtech company, MedAdvisor Limited (MedAdvisor or the Company) (ASX: MDR) announces that Mr Peter Bennetto has resigned as a director of the Company, effective from 26 November 2021.

Mr Bennetto has been a director of MedAdvisor Limited (formerly Exalt Resources Limited) since 28 November 2013. He is the Company's longest serving director and served as Chairman from November 2013 to February 2020.

Board Chair Chris Ridd said, "Peter was instrumental from the early days in helping to steer MedAdvisor's growth and was also a key contributor to the Adheris acquisition last year. I want to acknowledge Peter as former Chair of the company for his long service and I know that he leaves at a time when he can proudly look back on the achievements to date and with confidence about the future outlook."

Managing Director and CEO, Robert Read added, "Peter has had extraordinary passion, insight and commitment that has helped MedAdvisor achieve significant growth since listing. I would like to thank him for his support as both our initial Chair and then as a non-executive director."

Commenting on his time on the MedAdvisor Board, Mr Bennetto said, "It has been my absolute pleasure to work with such a committed group of people on a mission to improve peoples' lives."
