

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

ASX Release 15 June 2023

Comms Group expands current supply agreement with Vodafone Group PLC.

Comms Group Limited (ASX: CCG) (“Comms Group” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has signed a further agreement<sup>1</sup> with Vodafone Business, the business division of Vodafone Group PLC, to expand the range of services provided, for a minimum contract period of five years.

Key Highlights:

- Comms Group and Vodafone Business have agreed to extend the existing supply agreement to include the provision of Microsoft Operator Connect<sup>2</sup>, automation, self-service and provisioning tools and related services.
- Comms Group will deliver zero-touch, self-service provisioning, orchestration and automation of Microsoft Teams calling using its state-of-the-art SBCaaS (Session-Border-Controller-as-a-Service) platform and additional platforms.
- Vodafone Business will continue to access bespoke Teams Direct Routing deployment services and related services. In addition, Comms Group will enable the Operator Connect service for Vodafone.
- The new supply agreement between the parties is for a minimum commitment period of five years, after which the service will be provided on a month-to-month basis and may be terminated by either party with a minimum notice period of 12 months.
- Vodafone Business have committed to a minimum monthly charge of ~A$30k per month from 1 October 2023.
- Vodafone Business have identified pipeline opportunities of new users over the extended contract period that will add new revenue streams to Comms Group over time. As these opportunities develop, Comms Group will provide further updates to the market.
- The initial deployment of the service has commenced and is expected to be completed by June 2023 with user onboarding to commence immediately thereafter.

The deployment of services by Comms Group will be delivered initially to Vodafone Business’s Enterprise team which services MNCs (Multi-National Corporations) as well as Vodafone UK and Germany. Additional operating entities within the Vodafone Group are expected to sign-on to the service once the initial roll-out is complete. As part of the deployment of services, Vodafone Business will be provided a range of orchestration and automation tools to provide fast turn-up capability to their existing Microsoft Teams UC product portfolio.
