ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

NB GLOBAL CORPORATE INCOME TRUST (ASX: NBI) – INTENTION TO REQUEST APPROVAL TO DE-LIST

24 October 2023: Neuberger Berman Australia Ltd (“Manager”), investment manager of the NB Global Corporate Income Trust (“NBI”), and Equity Trustees Limited (“Responsible Entity”), responsible entity of NBI, wish to announce their intention to request approval from the ASX to de-list NBI. As at the date of this announcement, the ASX has not approved the de-listing of NBI, either formally or in-principle. Any potential de-listing will be subject to the approval of both the ASX and NBI’s unitholders (“Unitholders”).

The Manager maintains its conviction in NBI, which it believes, given NBI’s strong track record of performance based on its net tangible assets (“NTA”), remains a compelling value proposition. However, the Manager acknowledges that despite its best efforts the consistent discount between NBI’s ASX unit price and its NTA per unit has prevailed. As such, both the Responsible Entity and the Manager consider that NBI would more appropriately operate as an unlisted registered managed investment scheme with daily applications and redemptions based on its NTA.

Subject to receiving the ASX’s approval, an Extraordinary General Meeting (“EGM”) is expected to be held in or about February 2024 to seek Unitholder approval for NBI’s de-listing.

In connection with NBI’s de-listing, the Manager proposes to apply a transitional 12-month exit fee for the benefit of all remaining Unitholders in NBI. This fee will not be paid to the Manager or the Responsible Entity. During this 12-month transitional period, redemption requests are proposed to be subject to a gating mechanism, with ongoing liquidity for such redemptions being provided by either using NBI’s cash balances or selling its assets.

Significant work is still required to determine the most appropriate way to implement NBI’s de-listing and any details in this announcement are subject to change. No immediate action is required at this time and further details will be provided to the market in due course.

Mr Russell Beasley, Director of Equity Trustees Limited has authorised this document be given to the ASX.
