Appointment of Chief Operating Officer

AIC Mines Limited (ASX: A1M) ("AIC Mines" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of Tim Benfield as Chief Operating Officer of the Company.

Mr Benfield has over 30 years of experience in the mining sector and has held a range of senior roles including Chief Operating Officer, General Manager Operations and Chief Engineer within copper and gold mining companies.

Most recently he was Chief Operating Officer with Fetch Metals, leading the development studies for the White Range Copper Project, located south of Cloncurry. Prior to this he was General Manager Project Development with Aeon Metals at the Walford Creek Copper Project, located north of Cloncurry. Tim was Chief Operating Officer with ASX-listed Kingsgate Consolidated from 2012 to 2016 where he oversaw gold mining operations in Australia and Thailand.

Tim is well known to the AIC Mines management team from his time with Evolution Mining as General Manager of the Pajingo Gold Mine, located in North Queensland, from 2009 to 2012.

Mr Benfield holds a diploma in Mining Engineering from the Camborne School of Mines and an MBA from Murdoch University. He is a Fellow of the Australasian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Commenting on the appointment, AIC Mines Managing Director Aaron Colleran said:

"As we embark on the development of the Jericho project, the AIC Mines business has grown to a point where a COO is warranted. Tim is a perfect fit for the role – he has very relevant and current experience in the Cloncurry district and he is well known to key members of our management team. It's great to be working with Tim again."
