Tinybeans Group Limited (ASX: TNY) (OTCQB: TNYF) ("Tinybeans" or "the Company") is pleased to advise of the successful completion of the institutional component of its recently announced fully underwritten¹ pro-rata accelerated non-renounceable entitlement offer (Entitlement Offer) (see ASX announcement dated 15 April 2024).

The Entitlement Offer consists of a fully underwritten² 1-for-1.43 pro rata accelerated non-renounceable entitlement offer of new fully paid ordinary shares (New Shares) at A$0.085 per New Share (Offer Price) to raise gross proceeds of approximately A$5.0 million (equivalent to approximately US$3.3 million³). The Entitlement Offer includes 1 new free attaching option (Attaching Option) for every 2 New Shares subscribed under the Entitlement Offer.

Each Attaching Option is exercisable at A$0.095 per option into 1 New Share on or before the date that is 12 months from the date of issue of the Attaching Options. Further, for each Attaching Option exercised, Tinybeans will issue to the exercising optionholder (for nil consideration) 1 new option (Piggyback Option). Each Piggyback Option is then exercisable at A$0.13 per option into 1 New Share on or before the date that is 3 years from the date of issue of the Attaching Options.

The institutional component of the Entitlement Offer (Institutional Entitlement Offer) raised approximately A$2.32 million (equivalent to approximately US$1.49 million⁴) from the proposed issue of approximately 27,246,210 New Shares.

⁴ Based on a currency conversion on Monday, 15 April 2024 of US$1.00 to A$1.56.

The Institutional Offer, which opened on Monday, 15 April 2024 and closed on Tuesday, 16 April 2024, was made at A$0.085 per New Share, representing a 9.4% discount to the theoretical ex-rights price (TERP)⁵.

The Institutional Entitlement Offer experienced a take-up rate of approximately 46.2% (of the total Entitlement Offer) which consisted of New Shares taken up by eligible institutional shareholders under the Institutional Entitlement Offer and New Shares equivalent to the entitlements not taken up by institutional shareholders, taken up by select institutional investors offered via an institutional bookbuild process (Institutional Bookbuild).

Chantale Millard, Chair of Tinybeans, said:

“We are delighted to have completed the institutional component of the Entitlement Offer, with pleasing support from both new and existing institutional investors, which will allow the business to continue the execution of its growth plans. We look forward to welcoming retail investors to participate in the raise, with the Retail Entitlement offer opening on 22 April 2024.”

New Shares to be issued under the Institutional Entitlement Offer (including under the Institutional Bookbuild) will rank equally in all respects with existing fully paid ordinary shares. Settlement of the New Shares is scheduled to occur on Monday, 22 April 2024, with New Shares expected to be allotted on Tuesday, 23 April 2024, and trading to commence on a normal settlement basis on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) on the following day.

Under the Institutional Entitlement Offer, Tinybeans’ major shareholder, comprising the Thorney Investment Group (Thorney) (with a nominee on the Tinybeans Board), subscribed to take up part of its entitlement of approximately A$0.46 million which would result in its voting power decreasing from 19.77% to 19.75% following the issue of the New Shares under the Institutional Entitlement Offer. Thorney has also committed to act as a sub-underwriter of the Entitlement Offer which could see its voting power increase to approximately 28.0% if there were no participation in the retail component of the Entitlement Offer (Retail Entitlement Offer).⁶ In the event only Thorney exercises its Attaching Options and Piggyback Options (and no other Attaching Options and Piggyback Options were exercised) this could result in Thorney's voting power increasing to a maximum of 38.2%.

⁶ Bell Potter Securities Limited received consent from ASIC under section 615 of the Corporations Act to 2001 (Cth) to act as nominee.

As detailed in the Prospectus lodged on 15 April 2024, Thorney has a nominee on the board, although does not control Tinybeans. None of the other sub-underwriters are related to Tinybeans.

Refer to Section 4.9 of the Prospectus for detail on the control implications for Thorney and priority allocation to all sub-underwriters (other than Thorney) ahead of Thorney, in order to reduce such control implications.
