Economic Outlook.

2024 Growth Forecasts

Global Outlook

- The IMF has projected steady global growth at 3.1% for this year, consolidating at 3.2% in 2025. While relatively good news, this is still below global growth rate levels that averaged almost 4.0% in years preceding 2020.
- Underlying structural risks to growth remain persistent across developed economies, including productivity inefficiencies due to capital and labor re-allocation across the globe post-COVID. Emerging economies to perform slightly better due to strong commodity prices.
- Further growth risk will be fiscal consolidation to manage aftermath of debt-fueled growth over the past 3 years: balancing sovereign debt-service obligations with current demand.
- Inflation is projected at 6% in 2024 (2022: 5%). Despite global monetary policy tightening to target rising costs, geo-political tensions, elevated energy costs and supply-chain route disruptions still placing upward pressure on general price levels.

Domestic Outlook

- PNG's GDP in 2024 is set to grow by 5%. 'Resources sector' GDP will grow by +7% due to Porgera's resumption and higher production outputs from Ok Tedi.
- The 'Non-resource' sectors is also set to benefit with service sector industries such as transportation, accommodation and food services set to grow.
- Agriculture commodities are also on a growth trajectory due to stronger-than-expected global prices for cocoa and palm oil, which should feed through to small-holder farmers in rural communities. The Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery (AFF) sector is estimated to grow by 2.2% for 2024.
- Domestic cost pressures look set to continue with projected headline inflation at 5% in 2024, driven by the exchange rate depreciation and Government spending.
- In the medium term, the continued uncertainty for major resource projects in the pipeline (Papua LNG, P'nyang, Pasca and Wafi) will continue to weigh on macroeconomic variables, including the convertibility of the current exchange.

Corporate Tax.

- In December 2022, the PNG Government announced an increase in Corporate Income Tax on Commercial Banks from 30% to 45% for the 2023 fiscal year.
- KPMG commissioned to prepare submission on behalf of the PNG Banker's Association to PNG Treasury for a repeal of the corporate tax rate.

Guidance.

- For the Half year ending 30 June 2024, Kina Bank expects to report NPAT in the range of PGK41.2m to PGK42.9m.
- For the Full year ending 31 December 2024, Kina Bank expects to report NPAT in the range of PGK109.5m to PGK111.2m.
- This guidance takes into account the customer fraud incident announced to the market on 18 June 2024. The pre-tax impact from this, assuming no recoveries, is expected to be a loss of PGK12m – PGK15m. On a post tax basis, this translates to PGK6.6m – PGK 8.3m.
