Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously disclosed, on March 19, 2024, Amcor plc (the “Company”) announced that Peter Konieczny, the Company’s then-current Chief Commercial Officer, would become Interim Chief Executive Officer (the “Interim CEO”) and carry the title of principal executive officer, effective April 15, 2024. On September 4, 2024, after a robust internal and external search, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company appointed Mr. Konieczny as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective immediately. It is also intended that Mr. Konieczny will become a director nominee to be included in the Company’s definitive proxy statement for its 2024 annual general meeting of shareholders, expected to be held in November 2024. The Board has taken action to increase the size of the Board to reflect the addition of Mr. Konieczny as a director, with such increase to be effective immediately prior to the Company’s 2024 annual general meeting of shareholders.

Mr. Konieczny, 59, has been employed by Amcor or its predecessors since 2010. He served as Interim CEO from April 2024 to the present; Chief Commercial Officer from September 2020 to April 2024; President, Amcor Flexibles, Europe, Middle East & Africa and Latin America between 2019 and September 2020; President, Amcor Flexibles Europe, Middle East & Africa between 2015 and 2019; and President, Amcor Specialty Cartons between 2010 and 2015. Prior to Amcor, he had five years of experience in the packaging industry as President of Silgan White Cap, a global organization specializing in metal and plastic closures for the food and beverage industries. He held business group Managing Director and Chief Finance Officer positions in the heavy industrial equipment industry and has been a management consultant with McKinsey & Company.

Mr. Konieczny is a party to an employment agreement with the Company, dated September 17, 2009 (the “Original Employment Agreement”), which was supplemented by a letter agreement, dated March 16, 2024 (the “Interim CEO Letter Agreement”), that set forth employment and compensation terms relating to his role as Interim CEO, and which incorporated certain terms of the Original Employment Agreement.

On September 4, 2024, in connection with Mr. Konieczny’s appointment to the role of Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”), he entered into a letter agreement with the Company, dated as of such date (the “CEO Letter Agreement”), that sets forth employment and compensation terms relating to his role as the CEO, and which incorporates certain terms of the Original Employment Agreement. The CEO Letter Agreement confirms that Mr. Konieczny will report to the Board in his role as CEO. Further pursuant to the terms of the CEO Letter Agreement, Mr. Konieczny will continue to receive an annualized base salary of CHF 1,580,190. He will continue to participate in the Company’s Management Incentive Plan (the “MIP”) with an incentive opportunity at the target percentage of 120% of base salary and payouts ranging from 0 to 180% of base salary based on individual and Company performance. Mr. Konieczny will continue to participate in the Company’s Equity Management Incentive Plan (the “EMIP”), with an annual grant valued at 50% of the cash MIP payout paid to him and delivered in the form of time-based restricted share units (“RSUs”). He will also continue to participate in the Company’s Long-Term Incentive Plan with grants made to him based on a grant date fair value of 250% of his base salary. The restricted share unit grant provided to Mr. Konieczny under the Company’s Senior Executive Retention Share Plan upon his appointment as Interim CEO will continue unchanged. The CEO Letter Agreement supersedes and cancels the Interim CEO Letter Agreement.

If the Company were to terminate Mr. Konieczny without cause (as defined in his Original Employment Agreement), or if Mr. Konieczny terminates his employment as a good leaver (as defined in the CEO Letter Agreement), each while he is serving as CEO, then he would be entitled to (1) 12 months of base salary as severance pay; (2) any MIP payment (including any portion due under the EMIP) previously earned at the time of termination, paid entirely in cash; (3) a pro-rated portion of the MIP award earned (including any portion due under the EMIP) for the performance period during which the termination occurs, paid entirely in cash; (4) the vesting in full of all outstanding RSUs granted to him under the EMIP within 30 days after the employment termination date, and the vesting in full of the restricted share units granted to him at the time he became Interim CEO within 30 days following cessation of active employment; and (5) any other equity awards for which he has completed one-half of the performance or vesting period as of the termination date will continue to vest according to their terms on a pro-rated basis. Further, Mr. Konieczny’s restrictive covenants under his Original Employment Agreement will be extended to 12 months (the “restraint period”) following termination of employment, and the definition of restraint area as relates to his restrictive covenants is modified to mean all regions in which the Company operates a material business as at the date of termination of his employment. The Company will pay to Mr. Konieczny during the restraint period an annual compensation payable monthly in the amount of 100% of his base salary, reduced in proportion to other salary received by him during the restraint period, unless the Company determines to waive the restrictive covenants.

There are no transactions since the beginning of the Company's last fiscal year in which the Company is a participant and in which Mr. Konieczny or any members of his immediate family have any interest that are required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K. No family relationships exist between Mr. Konieczny and any of the Company's directors or executive officers. The appointment of Mr. Konieczny was not pursuant to any arrangement or understanding between him and any person, other than a director or executive officer of the Company acting in his or her official capacity.

The foregoing descriptions of the CEO Letter Agreement, the Interim CEO Letter Agreement and the Original Employment Agreement are not complete and are in summary form only, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the CEO Letter Agreement, the Interim CEO Letter Agreement and the Original Employment Agreement, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, respectively. A copy of the press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Konieczny to the role of CEO is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Appointment as Chief Executive Officer ("CEO")

Dear PK,

We are pleased to provide this letter confirming your appointment as CEO of Amcor plc (the "Company"). The terms set forth in your Employment Agreement with Amcor Group GmbH ("Amcor CH") dated September 17, 2009, as amended (the "Employment Agreement") will be amended as described below. The letter dated March 16, 2024 outlining the terms of your appointment as interim CEO ("Interim CEO Letter") is hereby cancelled and superseded in its entirety by this letter agreement.

1. Position. As CEO, you will have responsibilities as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). Your duties and responsibilities are subject to change depending on the needs of the Company and/or Amcor CH. You will report to the Board.
2. Compensation.
 - a. Your annualized base salary will be CHF 1,580,190 (as may be increased from time to time, the "Base Salary").
 - b. You will continue to participate in the Management Incentive Plan (the "MIP") with an incentive opportunity at target of 120% of your Base Salary with payouts ranging from 0% to 180% based on individual and company performance.
 - c. You will continue to participate in the Equity Management Incentive Plan (the "EMIP") with an annual grant valued at 50% of the cash MIP paid to you and delivered in the form of time-based restricted share units (RSUs).
 - d. You will continue to participate in the Long Term Incentive Plan (the "LTIP") based on a grant date fair value equal to 250% of your Base Salary.
 - e. The restricted share unit grant provided to you under the Senior Executive Retention Share Plan ("SERSP") upon your appointment as interim CEO will continue unchanged.
 - f. Except as otherwise set out herein, the terms of the MIP, EMIP, LTIP and SERSP are described in the relevant governing documents, including the 2019 Omnibus Management Share Plan, and may be modified by Amcor from time to time.
3. Minimum shareholding policy. You will be required to hold 3x your annual Base Salary as Amcor shares, in accordance with the Minimum Shareholding Policy.
4. Termination Without Cause or as a Good Leaver.
 - a. If Amcor CH terminates your employment pursuant to Section 10 (2) of the Employment Agreement [Termination on Notice – Company] ("Termination without Cause") while you are serving as CEO, the Company agrees to treat your outstanding incentive plan participation and benefits as set out below (in lieu of the treatment provided by the terms of such plan) and provide the following compensation:

- i. If the termination occurs after the completion of a performance period under the MIP but prior to the date the amount due thereunder has been paid, then assuming a payment has been earned based on the achievement of the performance goals for the period, the Company will pay you the entire amount earned under the MIP (including any portion due under the Equity Management Incentive Plan ("EMIP")) at the same time as other executives receive their MIP payments, but any portion earned under the EMIP will also be paid in cash;
 - ii. With respect to the MIP performance period in which your termination occurs, the Company will pay you the MIP payment earned, if any, based on the achievement of the performance goals, at the same time as other executives receive their MIP payments, but your entire amount earned under the MIP (including any portion due under the EMIP) will be pro-rated to reflect the number of completed months during the performance period that you were actively employed, and such amount will be paid in cash;
 - iii. Your outstanding restricted stock units ("RSUs") granted under the EMIP will become vested in full within 30 days after your employment termination date;
 - iv. Your outstanding 170,000 RSUs with a vesting period that continues through to February 2026 will become fully vested within 30 days following cessation of active employment;
 - v. Any other equity awards for which you have completed one-half of the performance or vesting period as of the date you cease to be actively employed, will continue to vest according to their terms as if you had continued in active employment, except that upon the vesting date, the amount vested will be pro-rated to reflect the number of completed months of employment during the performance or vesting period that you were actively employed. In addition, any stock options that become vested after you cease active employment may be exercised for ninety (90) days following the vesting date for such stock options. Except as described herein, the terms and conditions of any equity award will continue to apply without change.
- b. Upon termination as a Good Leaver (as defined below), the Company will make the same payments, and will treat your equity/incentive awards and benefits in the same manner, as if you had been terminated by Amcor CH without "Cause" (i.e. as if there had been a "Termination without Cause") as described in Section 4a above. For the purposes hereof, you shall be considered a Good Leaver in the following circumstances (each, a "Good Leaver Event"):
- i. a material change to your authority, duties, or responsibilities without your written consent (not including any temporary reduction in authority during any period of mental or physical incapacity); or
 - ii. a reduction in your annual Base Salary or participation level or opportunity in any bonus or other incentive compensation plan or program of the Company.

In order to terminate as a Good Leaver, you must provide written notice to Amcor CH of the existence of a particular Good Leaver Event within 60 days of its initial existence or you having learned of the existence of a Good Leaver Event. Amcor CH and the Company shall have 30 days following the receipt of your notice regarding the occurrence of a Good Leaver Event ("Cure Period") within which to remedy the Good Leaver Event. If Amcor CH and the Company fail to remedy the Good Leaver Event within the 30 day Cure Period ("Failure to Cure"), then you may serve notice as Good Leaver as soon as you learn of the Failure to Cure, in which case you shall continue to perform work until the last day of the Cure Period and thereafter be exempted from your obligation to perform work as of the expiry of the Cure Period (subject to Amcor CH waiving the notice period in accordance with Section 4c below).

- c. In the event of termination under paragraphs a or b above, Amcor CH commits to (i) waiving any notice period you are otherwise required to satisfy while paying you the equivalent of 12 months' Base Salary or (ii) release you from your obligation to perform work while continuing to pay your full compensation during the notice period. Amcor CH further commits to entering into a termination agreement to reflect such waiver and/or release from your obligation to perform work and the pertaining payment obligations of Amcor CH as set out in this paragraph c if and when necessary.

5. Restrictions. The following changes will apply to Section 18 of your Employment Agreement:

- a. As agreed upon your appointment as interim CEO, the definition of "Restraint Period" is amended to read "means 12 months".
- b. The definition of "Restraint Area" is amended to read "means all regions in which the Company operates a material business as at the date of termination of your employment".
- c. Section 18 (3) of the Employment Agreement shall be amended to read as follows:

"During the Restraint Period, the Company (or Amcor CH) shall pay you an annual compensation payable in monthly equal instalments in the amount of 100% of the annual base salary you have earned at the time your employment ceases. The compensation shall be reduced in proportion to other salary received by you during the Restraint Period. To the extent permitted under applicable laws, you shall inform the Company at its discretion at any time about your income during the Restraint Period and to disclose your respective employer. The Company may at any time waive the restrictions in this Clause 18 in writing by observing a notice period of three months; in such event, the obligation of the Company to pay compensation shall lapse after expiry of the notice period."

Except as set forth above, all of the terms of your Employment Agreement will continue to apply, including but not limited to the confidentiality obligations contained therein. Please sign below to indicate your acceptance of the terms described in this letter, including the amendments made to your Employment Agreement.

Amcor appoints Peter Konieczny as Chief Executive Officer

ZURICH, September 4, 2024 – Amcor (NYSE: AMCR; ASX: AMC), a global leader in developing and producing responsible packaging solutions, today announced that its Board of Directors has appointed Peter Konieczny as Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Mr. Konieczny has served as Interim CEO since April 2024. The Board also intends to nominate him as a director for election at the Company’s Annual Meeting of Shareholders which is expected to be held in November 2024.

Amcor Chairman, Mr. Graeme Liebelt said: “Peter has demonstrated exceptional leadership in every role he has held during his career at Amcor, including as Interim CEO where he has led the Company through a period of strengthening financial performance and set the business up for further progress. The Board and I are confident Peter is the right person to lead Amcor, and we look forward to working with him to build on the strong foundation the Company has established over many years.”

Mr. Konieczny said: “I am honored and grateful for the opportunity to lead Amcor as Chief Executive Officer. Amcor is an outstanding Company with highly talented people, a strong sense of purpose, a proven culture of execution and most importantly, significant growth potential.”

“The business finished fiscal 2024 well with strong earnings growth, giving us confidence that momentum in the underlying business will continue to build in fiscal 2025 and beyond. Together with our continued commitment to safety, customer success and disciplined capital allocation, I believe Amcor is very well positioned to deliver industry leading value for our customers, our shareholders and the environment.”

About Peter Konieczny

Mr. Konieczny has been a member of the Amcor Global Management Team since 2010 and was appointed Interim Chief Executive Officer in April 2024. Between September 2020 and April 2024, Mr. Konieczny served as Chief Commercial Officer (CCO), where he oversaw global category and product management, Sustainability, R&D and Procurement while maintaining responsibility for the Amcor Flexibles Latin America business. He also served as President, Amcor Flexibles, Europe, Middle East & Africa and Latin America between 2019 and 2020, President, Amcor Flexibles Europe, Middle East & Africa between 2015 and 2019, and President, Amcor Specialty Cartons between 2010 and 2015. Prior to Amcor, he had five years of experience in the packaging industry as President of Silgan White Cap, a global organization specializing in metal and plastic closures for the food and beverage industries. He held business group Managing Director and Chief Finance Officer positions in the heavy industrial equipment industry and has been a management consultant with McKinsey & Company.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains certain statements that are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are generally identified with words like “believe,” “expect,” “target,” “project,” “may,” “could,” “would,” “approximately,” “possible,” “will,” “should,” “intend,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “commit,” “estimate,” “potential,” “ambitions,” “outlook,” or “continue,” the negative of these words, other terms of similar meaning, or the use of future dates. Such statements are based on the current expectations of the management of Amcor and are qualified by the inherent risks and uncertainties surrounding future expectations generally. Actual results could differ materially from those currently anticipated due to a number of risks and uncertainties. Neither Amcor nor any of its respective directors, executive officers, or advisors provide any representation, assurance, or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements will actually occur. Risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from expectations include, but are not limited to: changes in consumer demand patterns and customer requirements in numerous industries; the loss of key customers, a reduction in their production requirements or consolidation among key customers; significant competition in the industries and regions in which we operate; an inability to expand our current business effectively through either organic growth, including product innovation, investments or acquisitions; challenging global economic conditions, impacts of operating internationally; price fluctuations or shortages in the availability of raw materials, energy, and other inputs which could adversely affect our business; production, supply, and commercial risks, including counterparty credit risks, which may be exacerbated in times of economic volatility; pandemics, epidemics, or other disease outbreaks; an inability to attract, motivate and retain our skilled workforce and manage key transitions; labor disputes and an inability to renew collective bargaining agreements at acceptable terms; physical impact of climate change; cybersecurity risks, which could disrupt our operations or risk of loss of our sensitive business information; failures or disruptions in our information technology systems which could disrupt our operations, compromise customer, employee, supplier and other data; a significant increase in our indebtedness or a downgrade in our credit rating could reduce our operating flexibility and increase our borrowing costs and negatively affect our financial condition and results of operations; rising interest rates that increase our borrowing costs on our variable rate indebtedness and could have other negative impacts; foreign exchange rate risk; a significant write-down of goodwill and/or intangible assets; a failure to maintain an effective system of internal control over financial reporting; inability of our insurance policies, including our use of a captive insurance company, to provide adequate protection against all of the risks we face; an inability to defend our intellectual property rights or intellectual property infringement claims against us; litigation, including product liability claims or litigation related to Environmental, Social, and Governance (“ESG”) matters or regulatory developments; increasing scrutiny and changing expectations from investors, customers, suppliers and governments with respect to our ESG practices and commitments resulting in additional costs or exposure to additional risks; changing ESG disclosure regulations including climate-related rules; changing environmental, health, and safety laws; changes in tax laws or changes in our geographic mix of earnings; and other risks and uncertainties identified from time to time in Amcor’s filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including without limitation, those described under Item 1A. “Risk Factors” of Amcor’s annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023 and any subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. You can obtain copies of Amcor’s filings with the SEC for free at the SEC’s website (www.sec.gov). Forward-looking statements included herein are made only as of the date hereof and Amcor assumes no obligation, and disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, or any other information in this communication, as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, or to correct any inaccuracies or omissions in them which become apparent, except as expressly required by law. All forward-looking statements in this communication are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement.
