Macro Update.

Source: 2024 National Budget; Bank of PNG (2024 March Monetary Policy Statement)

Macro growth stable in medium-term

- Real GDP growth for this year is forecasted at 3%, from 2.7% in 2023.
- Mining sector growth with Porgera Mine resuming and spill over effects into non-resource sector.

Retail/Wholesale sector has been driving activity over the past 3 years: consumer demand still relatively strong.

Inflation averaging 4.3% (last 3 years), with forecast of 5% this year with imported inflation pressures. Being managed through careful Central Bank intervention.

Interest Rates have been trending up with tightening monetary policy

Central Bank currently in a monetary tightening cycle to manage inflation pressures. Higher yields in 2024 for Government Securities.

FX situation has improved

Competitive exchange rate with more export flows starting to clear out backlog of import orders. Waiting times have dramatically fallen, now with capital investment flows supported by the Central Bank.

Major Resource Project Update

Medium term outlook post-2026 is still very bullish on PNG economy with major capital projects totalling nearly $30billion over 8-10 years of construction.

Project	US$ billion	Start Date
Papua LNG (Total)	10.00	2026
P'nyang LNG (ExxonMobil)	12.00	2027
Wafi-Golpu (Newmont/Harmony)	5.40	2028
