2024 Annual General Meeting Presentation

Please find attached a copy of the Chair's and CEO's addresses to shareholders to be delivered at the Annual General Meeting of Breville Group Limited at 10:00am AEDT today.

The release of this announcement was authorised by the Board.

Chair's Address at 2024 AGM

Slide 1

Good morning and welcome to the 2024 Annual General Meeting of Breville Group Limited.

My name is Timothy Antonie, and I am the Chair of the Company.

Slide 3

I would like to begin by acknowledging and paying respects to the traditional custodians of the land on which we work, and to their Elders, past and present, and we further extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders present here today.

We celebrate the continuing contribution of their food and culture, and seek to support it, in Australia and the world.

Slide 5

The 2024 financial year was another year of consistent growth in revenues and EBIT with revenues exceeding $1.5 billion and EBIT of $185.7 million. This was achieved in a year characterised by macroeconomic weakness, led by higher-for-longer interest rates, as well as regional disruptions and instability.

Slide 6

Over the past 5 years revenue and EBIT have grown at compound average annual growth rates of 15% and 13.8% respectively.

This performance is very impressive, both in absolute terms and relative to our global peer group.

Slide 7

Importantly, our Global Products segment has grown by 16.9% per annum across the five years and our geographic expansion and diversification accelerated with 84% of total sales outside Australia in FY24, up from 76.2% 5 years ago.

Slide 8

Although revenue growth in FY24 was relatively subdued at 3.5%, the team delivered a gross profit increase of 7.7% and with cash operating expenses adroitly managed, an EBIT increase of 8%.

With this backdrop, Breville further increased its spend on new product development, marketing, technology and solutions by $21 million.

Our investment in these growth engines increased to 14.0% of sales in FY24, up from 13.1% in FY23 and 11% in FY19.

Slide 9

Net profit after tax increased by 7.5% to $118.5 million.

Earnings per share increased by 7.1% to 82.7 cents, and in line with the Board's target payout ratio of 40% of EPS; dividends per share also increased by 8.2% to 33 cents.

As planned, inventories reverted to equilibrium after the disruption of Covid, and a net cash position was delivered with strong cash flow of $174.9 million across the year.

Breville is well positioned for FY25 and Jim will discuss recent performance.

Breville has also made good progress on its sustainability plan, including the continued delivery of the ThermoJet program, the substantive completion of the Brown Box packaging initiative and improvements to our climate-related disclosures, including our first reporting of scope 3 emissions estimates. I encourage you to read our Annual Report for more detail.

Slide 10

On behalf of the Board, I would like to congratulate our CEO, Jim Clayton, our executives and our global team for their consistent delivery of record results, despite numerous global and local external disruptions. This is a testament to their agility, dedication and focus.

I would also like to take this opportunity to recognise Peter Cowan, who will retire from the Board at the conclusion of today's AGM.

Peter has made an outstanding contribution to Breville since joining the Board in September 2018. Since then, he has brought a deep operating experience and focus on shareholder value, including as the inaugural chair of the Board Sustainability Committee. On behalf of the Board and the executive team, I would like to thank Peter for the value he has added and wish him all the very best.

I would like to thank my fellow directors for their diligence and governance over the last 12 months.

Finally, I would like to thank our shareholders, customers, retail partners and suppliers for their continued support, and we look forward to working with you all in FY25 and beyond.

I will now hand over to Jim Clayton.

END CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

CEO's Address at 2024 AGM

Slide 12

Thank you, Tim, and good morning to everyone joining our AGM.

Today, I will walk through our FY24 year-end results, give a brief update on the first half of '25, and finish with some concluding remarks.

Slide 13

Given that we presented these results back in August, I will try to hit the high points. In FY24 we delivered another year of growth across Revenue, Gross Profit, and EBIT. Given the variability of costs moving through the COG line as well as the net impact of price increases in the previous year, Gross Profit was the arbiter of performance. For the year, Gross Profit grew 7.7%, which we translated into 7.5% NPAT growth through the careful management of Opex.

Slide 14

We saw Gross Profit growth in both the Global Segment and the Distribution Segment. The coffee category and new geographies drove growth in the Global Segment, with cooking and food prep rebasing, and the Distribution segment delivered solid Gross Profit gains coming off a weak performance in FY23.

Slide 15

Looking at Global Segment Theatre performance, the Americas and EMEA delivered positive growth, with both moving to double-digit growth in the second half. APAC reported (5.8%) growth in total off a mix of puts and takes: ANZ showed improvement in the 2H, Korea continued to move from strength-to-strength, but distributor markets went backwards as they worked through their own inventories, just as we did in FY24.

Slide 16

Looking at the FY23/FY24 EBIT bridge, we generated $40 million in incremental Gross Profit, $13.7 million of which was dropped to EBIT, with the remainder spread across D&A and Opex. Spend on marketing, R&D, and technology services and solutions increased to 14% of sales.

Slide 17

Given the unique characteristics of this vertical—long shelf-life products—inventory can be used like an insurance policy. This slide shows how we used inventory to buffer supply chain instability in FY21 and FY22. As the supply chain became more predictable, we released the policy in FY23 through FY24 and brought inventory back down to its equilibrium level, all without negatively impacting gross margin—it's a controlled build with a controlled release.

Slide 18

The primary callout in the balance sheet is the release of the inventory insurance policy, which produced a $113.5 million decrease in net working capital. This brought us back to a net cash position as of the end of the year, which is the typical pattern you would have seen pre-COVID.

Slide 19

I'll now give a short update on 1H25.

Slide 20

Setting aside the US election, which I will address, the positive trends we saw in the 2H of FY24 have continued through the 1H25. Period-to-date, all three Theatres are performing well. As expected, logistics costs have ticked up, most of which has been offset by reductions in FOBs flowing through. On the whole, the business is performing between the goal posts, so we continue to operate within our FY25 planning parameters.

Now that Trump has won the US Presidential election, the near-term risk of material tariff increases on consumer goods coming out of China has solidified, triggering two action items: (i) we will continue our inventory build in the US, unabated, likely until the increased tariffs are enforced; and (ii) we will move 120v production out of China, SKU-by-SKU, as quickly as possible, which is the acceleration of a project we started 2 years ago. We expect to be 80/20 on this project by the end of 2025, with the first incremental SKU going live around March, plus or minus.

Slide 21

In closing, I would like to thank every employee at BRG for navigating through yet another challenging year. I continue to be impressed by the team's ability to tack through one obstacle after another. I'd like to thank the Board for the guidance and support they provided the team throughout the year. I would also like to personally thank Peter Cowan for all of the experience, effort, and judgment he has brought to the Board, with a special callout for his leadership on the Sustainability Committee. Thank you for all you have done for BRG and know you will be missed.

With that, thank you to everyone for joining us today, and I will now hand back to Tim for the rest of the agenda.

- Employee cost increase of $13.5m is driven by recovery in STI to 100% (pcp 58%) and general wage inflation. Headcount remained stable

Inventory Through the Covid Cycle

Back to equilibrium

* Inventory balance includes Lelit manufacturing

Commentary

- Overall inventory back to equilibrium at 21.8% of sales at end of FY24 and $107m lower than at end of FY23
- Inventory was depleted in early Covid years due to strong demand. Operationally inefficient and elevated transportation costs
- Inventory was successfully built as a hedge against supply chain disruptions during FY22 and 1H23
- Hedge was unwound in 2H23 and FY24 through constrained purchases, not clearance sales, with improved Gross Margin
