“The next six weeks of trade are critical to our FY25 result as we trade through the Black Friday and Christmas periods. Initial responses to our Christmas range have been encouraging as we head into this important seasonal peak. We have opened two new stores and further extended our reach with the launch of 12 pop-ups in flagship centres across the country. This forms part of our ongoing test and learn approach with the aim of growing our market share and brand awareness during the key gifting season. We look forward to welcoming new and returning customers to dusk for the moments that matter this festive season.”
