

ASX RELEASE

27 NOVEMBER 2025

ACMA condition precedent satisfied for proposed merger between SCA and SWM

Southern Cross Media Group Limited (ASX: SXL) (SCA) is pleased to announce that the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) has today provided written approval under section 61AJ(4) of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (Cth) in respect of the proposed acquisition of Seven West Media Limited (ASX: SWM) (SWM) by SCA by way of scheme of arrangement (Scheme). The ACMA's approval satisfies the ACMA Condition Precedent in clause 3.1(a)(2) of the Scheme Implementation Deed dated 30 September 2025.

SCA has provided undertakings to the ACMA in connection with the approval which contemplate potential divestments. As set out in SCA's ASX release dated 30 September 2025, the potential divestments are not expected to be material in the context of the combined group. Notwithstanding this, SCA is committed to regulatory reform of existing media ownership laws including potential amendments to the Broadcasting Services Act which would allow SCA to retain all existing commercial broadcasting licences.

Following satisfaction of the ACMA Condition Precedent, all the regulatory approval conditions precedent under clause 3.1(a) of the Scheme Implementation Deed have now been satisfied.

SCA also confirms that the Fiduciary Right Deadline has now passed¹.

The Scheme remains subject to the satisfaction of other remaining customary conditions as set out in the SWM Scheme Booklet in relation to the Scheme, which was released to ASX on Wednesday, 12 November 2025. SWM's scheme meeting to approve the Scheme will be held on 22 December 2025.

This release has been approved by the Company Secretary.
