March Quarterly Activities Report & Appendix 4C

Invex Therapeutics Ltd (Invex, ASX:IXC, or the Company) a biopharmaceutical company focused on the development and commercialisation of Exenatide for neurological conditions relating to raised intracranial pressure (ICP), today provides an operational and corporate update to accompany its Appendix 4C cash flow statement for the quarter ended 31 March 2026 (Q3 FY26).

Operational Update

R&D Collaboration with Tessara Therapeutics

During the Quarter, the Company engaged with Tessara Therapeutics (Tessara), to further analyse the Exenatide in Tessara's ADBrain™ model, which has previously shown that Exenatide significantly improves neuronal cell survival under conditions mimicking Alzheimer's Disease (AD) and assess opportunities to enhance the Exenatide intellectual property portfolio with a view of furthering the development and commercialisation of Exenatide for neurological conditions relating to raised intracranial pressure (ICP).

When Exenatide on neuroinflammatory cytokine release and glucose metabolism was assessed in the ADBrain™ model, Exenatide reduced secreted neurofilament light chain (Nf-L) levels in ADBrain™ microtissues by approximately 40%, as shown below at 0.1 μ M and 10 μ M concentrations. Elevated Nf-L is a marker of cell stress and a putative biomarker used in blood-based bioassays to detect AD early in its progression. This result is consistent with Exenatide having a potential therapeutic benefit early in the disease process. In addition, Exenatide showed reductions in pro-inflammatory cytokine expression, notably IL-6 and IL-8. Neuroinflammation is a hallmark of a number of neurodegenerative diseases, including AD.

Effect of exenatide on Nf-L release into conditioned media of ADBrain

Levels of cell secreted Nf-L in ADBrain micro-tissues following 7-day exposure to 0.1 μ M exenatide, 10 μ M exenatide or basal non treated control (NTC). *p<0.05

Although 10µM Exenatide was associated with a 35% decrease in AB burden, needs to be further interrogated as the decrease in AB in micro-tissues was concomitant with an increase in GAPDH, the housekeeping protein used to normalise the experiment, as shown below. Previous studies have indicated that Exenatide can reduce AB deposition, accumulation, and toxicity in animal models. This finding will be investigated further.

Effect of exenatide on amyloid beta (Aβ) biomarkers in ADBrain

Measurement of Aβ in ADBrain following exposure to exenatide. Western blot and matching graph of densitometric quantification are shown. Data is expressed relative to β-actin. Data shown are mean values ± SEM.

Exenatide did not affect PT levels in ADBrain™ under the conditions tested. Exenatide did not significantly influence insulin-dependent glucose uptake in the ADBrain™ model under the tested conditions.

Although the analysis algorithm used by Tessara did not find any overall increase in the number of networks associated with Exenatide treatment, increases in network complexity measures such as neural branching, number of junctions and average branch length all suggest that Exenatide may have a positive effect on neuronal health in Tessara's ADBrain™ model, even at the relatively low dose of 0.1 µM of Exenatide and 7 days exposure, as shown below.

Subsequent to the end of the quarter, the Company announced the commencement of an expanded preclinical research program, with Tessara Therapeutics (Tessara) evaluating the GLP-1 receptor agonists Exenatide and Dulaglutide, including novel combination regimens, in Tessara's clinically validated human induced pluripotent stem cell (iPSC)-derived three-dimensional Alzheimer's disease model, ADBrain™.

Corporate Update

The Company held its deferred Annual General Meeting on 17 February 2026.

On 23 March 2026, Ms Carla Healy resigned as Joint Company Secretary.

Financial Summary and Analysis

The Company closed the quarter with cash and cash equivalents of $4,517,000 (Q2 FY26: $4,595,000), with overall operating cash outflows for the quarter of $79,000 (Q2 FY26: $430,000).

Cash outflows from operating expenditure included:

- Payments for Research & Development expenditure for the quarter were $53,000 (versus $36,000 in Q2 FY26). R&D expenditure primarily relates to the analyse of Exenatide in Tessara's ADBrain™ model and was up compared Q2 FY26 due to the timing of payments.
- Administration and corporate costs of $67,000 (versus $444,000 in Q2 FY26). The decrease in the administration and corporate costs primarily relate to costs incurred in relation to the s249D Meeting, as well as termination costs to the directors and company secretary who resigned on 7 November 2025 recognised in Q2 FY26. Ongoing compliance costs associated with an ASX listed company were incurred during the period.

Aggregate amounts paid to related parties of the Company and their associates included in the above costs were $70k for the quarter.

Notes

1. This quarterly cash flow report and the accompanying activity report provide a basis for informing the market about the entity's activities for the past quarter, how they have been financed and the effect this has had on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information over and above the minimum required under the Listing Rules is encouraged to do so.
2. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standard applies to this report.
3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
4. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the board". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a committee of your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the [name of board committee – eg Audit and Risk Committee]". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a disclosure committee, you can insert here: "By the Disclosure Committee".
5. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors and you wish to hold yourself out as complying with recommendation 4.2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the board should have received a declaration from its CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that this report complies with the appropriate accounting standards and gives a true and fair view of the cash flows of the entity, and that their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
