Talisman Launches Interactive Investor Hub

For personal use only

Talisman Mining Limited (ASX: TLM, 'Talisman' or the 'Company') is pleased to announce the launch of its new interactive website, which provides shareholders and prospective investors with a central platform to access Company information and engage directly with Talisman.

The site consolidates Talisman's announcements, presentations, reports, videos and other investor communications in one place. Importantly, it also gives shareholders and prospective investors a direct channel to ask the Company questions and engage with the Talisman team regarding announcements and updates.

The launch represents a further step in Talisman's commitment to maintaining open, transparent and accessible communication with shareholders as the Company continues to advance its portfolio.

Management Comment

Talisman Mining Managing Director/CEO, Todd Ross, said: "We place real importance on communicating openly with our shareholders, and the new site gives us a simple, direct way to do that. It brings our announcements, updates and video content together in one place, and lets shareholders and prospective investors ask questions and hear directly from the team.

"We have always wanted investors to be close to the Talisman story. This gives them the chance not only to receive our updates but also to engage with us directly as we continue to advance our projects.

"I encourage existing shareholders and anyone interested in following Talisman to join the Investor Hub and stay connected with us."
